Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, the subject is grief and loss over the holidays. Richard Battle and his wife lost their infant nine-month baby boy pass away at the age of nine months, twenty-one years ago. The years have passed but the sense of loss remains. Richard Battle will talk about that life changing event, how he responded to the pain of loss and what he now does to help comfort others facing similar grief at the holiday times, indeed the whole year long. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Wednesday & Thursday: The controversy over what Christianity Today said about President Donald Trump and the response of a number of well-known evangelical leaders was only the beginning. This issue opened the way for Paul Kretschmer to speak with Virginia Theological Seminary professor Stephen L. Cook about faith & politics and how those two broad areas coexist and tangle in the marketplace of ideas. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: Recently Gerry Williams was out and about and came across a brother in the lord inside of a shuttle bus. That's where he shared his testimony and an amazing story. Hear this and more at 3:15 a.m.; also 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Saturday: On the monthly edition of the WIHS Healthline broadcast, the issue is passenger safety, the safety of children in vehicles in particular. Middletown Community health educator Lou Carta shares the microphone with Luis Rivera from Connecticut Safe Kids, an organization dedicated to making the world safer for the younger and smaller members of society. Connecticut Safe Kids works out of Connecticut Children's Medical Center in Hartford. This series is produced by WIHS Public Affairs in cooperation with the Middletown Public Health Department. The WIHS Healthline airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
