November 19-24, 2018

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to local missionary Peter Lindblom, he will share his experiences of his missions, and talking about his upcoming goals of becoming a full-time missionary for Word Of Life in Schroon Lake New York. You can hear more about the story at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on WIHS!

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about the concern for gathering blood donations from willing donors year around, including holiday seasons. From the American Red Cross, Kelly Isenor explains how the process of accepting blood donations works, and asks listeners to remember that patients need access to donated blood even at times when minds and hearts are on other things. Here to WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Wednesday: During this Thanksgiving season Gerry Williams took to the streets of downtown Middletown to ask total strangers What Are You Thankful For. Find out what he got today at 3:15 a.m., 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal its News & Public Affairs!

Thursday: Join Gerry Williams for part two of his What Are You Thankful For series. Yesterday you heard him ask total strangers in downtown Middletown but today you'll hear from what some church members had to say. That's today at 3:15 a.m., 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal its News & Public Affairs!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about a recent trip to Cuba taken by Farm's International staffer Scott Clifton. One aspect of ministry possible in Cuba is low-key assistance for agriculture. Katey Hearth conducts the interview on the WIHS Journal airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: The subject of today's WIHS Journal is the opioid crisis, this time from the perspective of member lawyers from the Connecticut Bar Association. Lawyers are concerned about the impact of opioids that results in court action by families and recovering victims. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
