Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about the continuing efforts to transport copies of the Bible into China. The Chinese state allows the printing of Bibles by specified printers, but the allowed number of copies is not as great as are needed. This is especially true since believers of house churches prefer not to disclose themselves by going to authorized printers, who in turn, send that information to the authorities. Hear Wendell Rovenstine from Bibles for China on the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:49pm on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: The congressional recess for the US Congress has been underway during August, with most members of Congress returning to their home districts to visit with constituents. On today's WIHS Journal, hear a report on what US House member Jim Himes from the 4th District in Fairfield County has been telling people in his district. Representative Himes shares what he believes are the most pressing issues before the House this fall, and the positions he'll likely take when those items come up for action. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local; 24/7!
