

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of March 7-12, 2016

Monday:

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about some of the legendary local people in the community of Wallingford, Connecticut. Tarn Granucci is a native resident of the town between Meriden and North Haven. He's written a book about some of the notable people who have lived and worked in his hometown. It's a follow up of sorts to a book that contained many pictures of Wallingford. Hear about the "Legendary Locals of Wallingford" on today's WIHS Journal. The program hosted by Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Today on the WIHS Journal we'll have our third redemption story. This is part of a yearlong series where every second Thursday of the month we'll feature a beneficiary from the Salvation Army's Adult Rehabilitation Center who will share their story. Today you'll hear from PJ who went through the program successfully and became Fleet manager of the many trucks that service Connecticut. That's today on the Journal at 3:15 am; 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm right here on 104.9 FM WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear excerpts from a news conference staged to announce the candidates for president appearing on Connecticut's primary ballot in April. Secretary of the State Denise Merrill hosted the briefing for reporters, featuring officials from both the Democratic and Republican parties in the state. She also answered questions regarding how the ballot is set up and how candidates qualify for inclusion. Hear this look in on the representative government we live under, as provided by the Connecticut Network. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
