15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

April 13-18, 2020

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal with Anissa Porticelli, she'll be speaking to Sam Sorbo, an actor, radio talk show host, author and home schooling mom. Parents have found themselves at home with their children. A Texas group has now launched an emergency website with free daily lesson plans. Sam Sorbo will talk about that on the WIHS Journal. It airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS-Middletown!

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear a discussion of where legislation and the Connecticut General Assembly are going since the 2020 session was cut short by the Covid-19 coronavirus outbreak led to a lockdown that restricts movement for everyone, including legislators. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, investigative reporter Marc Fitch describes where matters stand where the work began in February, but got cut short by Governor Ned Lamont when it became clear legislative meetings would breach the size of assembled people. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear a discussion on personal development, centered on the human brain and the ability of people to make the maximum use of our minds. Dr. Patrick Porter is the founder and head of a website called, "Quantum University." The idea is to expand the use of your mind, becoming more creative and solving difficult problems more easily. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear a discussion on how to be proper and honor others when interacting in relationships. Bronwyn Lea came from South Africa a number of years ago, but has been working in ministry for a long time. Along the way Bronwyn has studied the Bible to discern how believers should interact with each other and also with people who have yet to place their eternity with Jesus Christ. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Saturday: Gerry Williams slogan is you never know who or what you going to run into when you're out and about. Well that certainly applies here. While out and about in downtown Hartford, Gerry came across a young trombone player playing on the sidewalk. Hear his conversation with this amazing young man. That's happening today at 3:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m. and 5:10 p.m. on the WIHS Journal—It's News & Public Affairs!
