May 25-30, 2020

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear edited excerpts from a Middletown Common Council special meeting to deal with funding paperwork having to do with the program the council has set up to assist businesses get back on their feet as the lockdown loosens up. An amendment to clarify one or more points from a measure passed at the beginning of the month needed to pass. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On Mondays and Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to a local author about her new book Trusting in God through the Storms. She'll be talking about the serious testimony of how God took her from homelessness, from DCF taking away her children, to receiving her master's degree, from finding God in a deep storm. You can hear these two interviews at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here and live in local WIHS!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear about an organization that sends care packages to US military personnel overseas while they are deployed and helps support the servicemembers who are being cared for in Veterans Affairs hospitals and related facilities across the country. Amy Palmer will describe what goes on at Soldiers Angels, the organization begun by a relative of the late General George Patton. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Saturday: Amato's Toy and Hobby shop has been a fixture in Middletown and New Britain for decades. Here the amazing Amato story as told by Steve Amato happening today at 3:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m., and 5:10 p.m. on the WIHS Journal—It's News & Public Affairs!
