

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of September 19-24, 2016

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal you can hear about the Encountering God's Presence women's conference. Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to the organizer Tanisha St. Brice, she will elaborate on how the conference in the past, has helped heal and deliver women, and help them walk boldly for Christ. You can tune in to hear this at 3:15am; 12:13pm, 5:49pm right here on your station for inspiration where we are live and local!!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a conference on healing being held in Plainville, Connecticut this coming weekend. The Reverend Nigel Munson has a life story that would be a full one even before he entered the ministry. Nigel Munson was a British marine in the service of the United Kingdom as a young man. It was after he saw his sister healed of distonia, a disease that causes the body to tighten and turn inward that he re-examined the Christian faith represented by his father a Church of England clergyman. Nigel Munson gained the faith of a Christian believer. For over 20 years he has lived in the United States and now heads of a ministry called "By His Wounds." Hear this WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Mark Jenkins is the founder and executive director of the Greater Hartford Harm Reduction Coalition, which has been in operation since March of 2014. Jenkins has been helping others battle addiction for almost two decades. These days he's teaching members of the public how to use naloxone, better known as Narcan, which is a drug designed to reverse an opioid overdose. Today you can hear Gerry Williams conversation with Mark Jenkins on the WIHS Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM WIHS and wihsradio.org Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal hear a conversation with Carol Platt Liebau (lee-BOW), head of the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. She'll discuss an initiative called "Connecticut Can Work" Liebau says the government of Connecticut has made it very difficult if not impossible for small business, the driver of new jobs and businesses from exist in the state. In fact, in the opinion of Yankee researchers, the state drives business away. Hear this WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the latest thinking at the Connecticut Department of Transportation when it comes to re-building I-84 as it passes through the Hartford area. The continual bridges or viaduct that carries the interstate through the capital city has now gone past its expected lifespan and needs to be replaced. Connecticut and federal authorities want that to happen before a section of the viaduct fails and causes injury or death. Hear Governor Dannel Malloy and Transportation Commissioner James Redeker discuss possible plans to rebuild the highway partly at street level, partly below level and get rid of the city splitting current construction entirely. The WIHS Journal with assistance from the Connecticut Network airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
