

WIHS Journal Promos the Week of May 25, 2015

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear from Mike Farris, founder and executive director of the Home School Legal Defense Association. The changes in society have always affected home schooling, but the inroads of society are more threatening than ever. Mike Farris says the specter of same-sex marriage is the next problem that home schooling will face. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about mission work in a part of the world that is so difficult and even dangerous that the guest must remain nameless to the listener. From Mission Network News, comes the conversation with a staffer from Partners International. It concerns relief work for people in Southeast Asia that have little going for them, and much against them. Tune in for the WIHS Journal hosted by Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a campaign by a number of interested parties to encourage safe teen driving, especially during the summer months. From St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford, Doctor John Rondis opens the news conference and introduces Connecticut Department of Transportation Commissioner James Redeker. The commissioner addresses the particular hazards faced by inexperienced drivers and how family and friends can encourage and train young drivers in ways to protect themselves while on the road. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
