

WIHS Journal Promos Week of May 18, 2015

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about politics in Connecticut and the impact that a small, resource limited organization can have. The Family Institute of Connecticut began in Fairfield County and still derives a good deal of income from that region, but is now based in Hartford. Executive Director Peter Wolfgang speaks about the successful effort to shut down doctor assisted suicide in the 2015 session at the Connecticut General Assembly and how a few people with the help of God fight for Biblical morality. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear excerpts from a recent news conference staged at St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center in Hartford on the issue of teen driving safety during the summer school break months. Teen driving is a concern year-round, what with new experiences, friends and limited on-the-road time for the young driver. On this program, produced with assistance from the Connecticut Network, Dr. John Rohdis from St. Francis Hospital and Medical Center addresses those concerns, along with remarks from among others, Connecticut Transportation Department Commissioner James Redeker. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
