

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Fourth Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

October 30-November 4, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was a description of an upcoming conference called, "Take Charge" Men's Ministry. Guest Corey Wright described how this effort was conceived and created for men in New England. He described how to re-engage men in the life of the church by acting as spiritual leaders in the congregation and in the home. The host was Gerry Williams.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was how to develop marketable ideas and use them to create business and a more satisfying personal life. Phil Cooke has written a book entitled, "Ideas on a Deadline." He spoke about some of the concepts shared in his writing with host Anissa Porticelli.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to the Christian Heritage School in Woodbridge, Connecticut. Michael Dube provided an outline of the school, what it teaches, the grades covered and the moral lessons taught in the curriculum. The host was Matt Harper.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these broadcasts was a re-airing of "China Threat" with writer Nan Su from the Epoch Times. The newspaper is published around the world and is available in an edition for North America. Nan Su described how his analysis outlines the threat faced by the United States posed by China. These threats are economic, political and military. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was an opportunity for Christian men to grow, mature and develop into the man God intended for the family and society. Steve Spada and Mike Sullivan described the "Strong Enough Men's Retreat in Connecticut. Gerry Williams was the host.