

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Second Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

October 2-7, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to an upcoming event called, "The Upper Room women's Conference." It's intended to provide grounding and growth for women within the Christian faith. The guest was Wanda Johnson who provided the description and the goals of the outreach. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was an educational opportunity called, "Live to Lead 2023. The presentation of the upcoming event was Yvonne Mitto of Middletown, who volunteers with the John Maxwell Ministry. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to the ministry known as "Family Renewal." The ministry is the direct work of evangelism and family strengthening by Israel Wayne. Building up the family and developing nurturing skills is the work described on the broadcast. The host was Matt Harper.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to the service known as "Women's Wealth Boutique." Jessica Weaver provide financial advice and counseling specific to women. She explained that women think and process differently that men and deserve information that's tailored to their needs and circumstances. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was "Finding a new home for the Russell Library in Middletown." The public library needs replacement as it has outgrown its home building and providing services in a building not intended for use in the 21st Century. Director Ramona Burkey explained the current structure and what will need inclusion into a replacement in the near future. The host was Paul Kretschmer.