CHILDREN'S VISION PROBLEMS RADIO TOPIC

Middletown — Dr. Scott Yap will be the guest on the next edition of the health-information radio program — Healthline. Dr. Yap, an ophthalmologist with Middlesex Eye Physicians, will discuss vision problems in youth and how they can be treated.

Vision problems affect approximately one in twenty preschoolers and one in four school-aged children in this country. Without good vision, a child's ability to learn becomes more difficult. Children with uncorrected vision problems may face many barriers in life whether it is developmentally, academically or socially.

Healthline is produced by the Middletown Health Department and can be heard Saturday, November 1st at 3:15 a.m., 12:15 p.m., and 5:15 p.m. on WIHS 104.9 FM.

JOURNAL – On the WIHS Journal Monday and Tuesday you'll hear from the founder of "Joni and Friends", Joni Eareckson Tada. She's the prolific author, painter, and syndicated radio host you hear on WIHS each weekday! Joni will share about the new endeavors of her life and ministry.

Also, she'll discuss the great impact of "Wheels for the World" and how it helps disabled individuals around the world. The 14th annual Wheels for the World collection runs July 7th - 12th at WIHS radio.

Listen to Anissa Porticelli as she welcomes back Joni Eareckson Tada to the WIHS Journal Monday and Tuesday at 3:15am, 12:13pm & 5:49pm!

READING ROOM – All this week in the WIHS Reading Room, Valerie Secore continues reading Kirk Cameron & Ray Comfort's book, "Conquer Your Fear – Share Your Faith".

Their book offers a simple and flexible curriculum for churches and small groups who want to obey the Bible's command to tell others about Jesus.

Increase your boldness for the Lord by spending time in The Reading Room each weekday at 1:30am & 1:30pm right here on 104.9FM WIHS.

BREAD OF LIFE – Pastor Ray McMahon of Praise, Power & Prayer Temple in Windsor is our speaker this week on Bread of Life.

Pastor McMahon will present five-minute devotionals on "The Covenant of Marriage & Holiness". Tune in each day at 12:25pm, 5:25pm & 11:25pm for Bread of Life, only on 104.9FM, WIHS!
