WIHS Journal Programs for the Week of March 19-24, 2018

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to Peter Wolfgang, the executive director of the Family Institute of CT about their Lobby Day coming up this week March 20th and the 21st. Peter will talk about how to call your legislature to vote your concern for assisted suicide and another bill that is trying to come against crisis pregnancy centers here in CT. He will also talk about their lobby day to protect life, faith and family. You can hear this at 3:15pm, 12:13pm and 5:49pm right here on live and local WIHS.

Tuesday through Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear a discussion with Christian believer and physician assistant Jack Pike about assisted suicide. Proponents have tried for several years to get this concept passed into law, joining six other states with some form of assisted suicide on the books. Jack Pike will explain from a faith driven and ethical perspective why assisted suicide is not a good idea. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: Crossroads student Ministries is geared toward youth. Every Friday night from 7 to 9 p.m. they gather for Bible study, prayer, fellowship and fun. Gerry Williams was out and about and caught up with the youth Pastor so he could elaborate on what it's all about. Catch this interview today at 3:15 a.m., 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS JOURNAL, It's News & Public Affairs!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear the voice of University of Connecticut women's basketball coach Geno Auriemma. He's one of the most successful coaches of college sports in the nation at the present time. Under Geno Auriemma, the Huskies women's basketball program has become one of the true powerhouses in sports today. Hear his presentation before the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Connecticut Network. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
