

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Second Quarter, 2018

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:49pm Monday through Friday
15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

April 2-7, 2018

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Iran Nazario the CEO of the peace center in Hartford. He is former gang member from the streets of Hartford. He will share more details of the new happenings at the Peace Center and their upcoming event. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on WIHS live and local WIHS!

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Christine Disibio (Dis-Sib-io) about the WOW conference and its theme Fearless Love. She will be teaching women not to walk in fear in these dark times. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on WIHS live and local WIHS!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the impassioned story of a Christian believer from the Greater Chicago region, who strangely enough was the last member of his immediate family to discover Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Tom Donnan resisted attempts by family to lead him to Jesus Christ till a major crisis in Tom's life became the place where he met Jesus and everything changed. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: Today's WIHS Journal is an Around and About with Gerry Williams. A feature of the season of Lent before Resurrection Sunday at Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford is a drama focusing on the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. This year the drama was entitled was "The Passion and the Cross." During the run of the drama, Gerry Williams interview key people involved in that presentation. Hear their stories on today's WIHS Journal Around and About with Gerry Williams. The broadcast airs at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On this month's Healthline with Lou Carta, the discussion is recycling as a means to conserve the environment while also making it a cleaner place to live in. From the City of Middletown Public works Department, recycling coordinator Kim O'Rourke will describe what communities may do to fulfill the recycling laws from the state of Connecticut, using Middletown as an example of how that may work. Here the WIHS Healthline broadcast today at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

