15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

July 8-13, 2019

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to Kim O'Rourke, the Middletown recycling coordinator, about some new laws in recycling, and better ways that we can help our environment. You can hear this interview at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here and live in local WIHS

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Cindy Dunbar, the new Connecticut wheelchair coordinator for Wheels for the World. This year Wheels for the World will be accepting donations of metal walkers and canes crutches. WIHS is NOT a drop off point but there are several other locations in Connecticut to make your donations. Please tune in at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM and 5:49 PM right here on WIHS!

Wednesday & Thursday: It has become increasingly clear that many people, but especially men, have become desensitized to the things of the world, especially porn, adultery and related sins. Even Christians appear to use porn at the same rate as those who are unbelievers. Dr. Michael Brown is an author who seeks to bring people, both men and women back to Biblical morality. Hear his conversation with Paul Kretschmer on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: Teen Challenge is a 12 to 15 month Christ centered program for men and women who are struggling with drugs and alcohol located in New Haven Connecticut. Gerry Williams spoke with a few of the men who went through the program. Hear their thoughts and comments today at 3:15 a.m.; 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Saturday: Conspicuous Love was an event that recently took place at Harbor Park here in Middletown. It was a church service hosted by a handful of area churches Down by the Riverside. Gerry Williams was on the scene for this 1st annual event. You can hear his coverage today at 3:15 am; 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!
