

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2022

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

July 25-30, 2022

Public File

Monday: The issue on this program was the staging of Hope Fest in Brooklyn, CT. It draws audiences from across Connecticut and Southern New England. The fest features music and Bible teaching over the course of a weekend. The guest was Brad Provencher, and the host was Anissa Porticelli

Tuesday: The issue on this program was the operations of the Long Hill Estate in Middletown, commonly known as the Wadsworth Mansion. Middletown resident & former mayor Paul Gionfriddo spoke during a public forum before the Common Council about seeming neglect of projects he has donated funding for. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Wednesday & Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was what is perceived by one public figure to be calculated misinformation meant to confuse the public. Dr. Jane Orient comments on public issues from time to time and this time she wanted to address this issue. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was about the Maccabean Games in Israel and the athletes who visit Israel. Correspondence from the Media Line were featured ,and the host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue of this broadcast was the very first African American Women to head up the state Office of the Public Defender. Ta-shun Bowden-Lewis was sworn into office by the Connecticut Supreme Court Chief Justice. Bowden-Lewis then spoke of her pride and being entrusted with a major job in the state. The host was Paul Kretschmer.