

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of July 3-8, 2017

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to Meliza Surdi, her music and her song called Take Over has reached a lot of people and helped some with depression and even suicide. On Today's interview, she will share her faith, her music, and how her music inspires her faith. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13pm and 5:49pm right here on WIHS!

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear first hand about the experiences of the 13th District senator whose district encompasses four towns including Middletown. Len Suzio served the district in the past, but was defeated for re-election. This past year Len Suzio determined to run again in the hope of effecting change regarding protection of life and many other issues. He won the seat back as November and is among members who, upon election, helped the Republican Party gain numerical parity with the Democratic Party. Hear Senator Len Suzio on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal hear about the views of a Christian journalist from down under, Australia specifically. From Assist News in California, Dan Wooding sends news about the Christian church under challenge around the world and interviews those who are committed to Great Commission Work. On this program, you'll hear an excerpt from a conversation with journalist David Maegrath, who will describe the work he does and the challenge of watch mission work in the Far East. Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, the investigative reporter for the Yankee Institute for Public Policy will review the extreme burden retirement and health benefits for organized retired state employees constitutes on the state. Marc Fitch describes what a large portion of the state budget is directed toward those who have earned retirement benefits but are as it is said, "pay as you go." The proportion of labor expenses obligated years in advance creates a serious problem in funding anything else. Hear today's WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On Saturdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to the founder of the Peace Center of CT, Iran Nazario. He will share his story of growing up in a foster home, becoming homeless at 12 years old, then joining a gang, to ending up in prison. His life, and perseverance is now used to help others to spread peace in the city of Hartford. You can hear more of his story and vision. Please tune in at 3:15am, 12:15pm and 5:10pm right here on WIHS.
