

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of February 6-11, 2017

Monday: On Mondays W I HS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak to Bishop Robert Middleton from the New Beginnings ministries, in Hamden. Both he and his wife will speak very openly about the new things they do at the church, and most importantly how he feels marriage is under attack. He will talk about his marriage conference entitled R.A.W, which is designed for married couples, as well as those who are engaged. You can hear more on this WIHS Journal at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on your live and local station W I HS!!

Tuesday: On Tuesdays W I HS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Brittany Mason, the head director of the ministry called Special Touch. Their organization, helps and aids disabled individuals their families and their caretakers learn and love about Jesus Christ. They are having a special event coming up this week entitled "love is in the air." You can tune in to hear more about this broadcast at 3:15 AM 12:13 PM and 5:49 PM right here on your live in local station W I HS!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about an agency serving Middletown and Middlesex County older citizens. It has gone under many names over the years—which extend back to the Middletown of 19th century. It's now called St. Luke Community Services. Eric Rodko will answer questions about the type of services that are age directed and age appropriate—to help the older citizen and their family remain active, vibrant and interested in life and time goes on. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: The crisis in the state of major cities across America has been examined for some time by the Manhattan Institute. Now, Steve Eide has drawn his lens to the four largest cities in Connecticut. Bridgeport, Hartford, New Haven and Waterbury all have significant problems that may take years, if ever, to remedy. What seems clear is than none of these communities will return to what they were 50 years or more ago. What Steve Eide has found is that the means and will to make a new and different future. Hear the WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer you'll hear one Christian response to actions taken in Congress to repeal & replace the Affordable Care Act, also known as "Obamacare." From the Family Institute of Connecticut, Executive Director Peter Wolfgang provides a faith based response to those who wish to continue the ACA, with its provisions for abortion services and requirements that violate the free exercise of faith guaranteed in the US Constitution. Senator Richard Blumenthal was recently heard with supporters of the ACA as is. Peter Wolfgang provides the perspective of those in Congress not sharing the Senators' perspective. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
