

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Fourth Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

October 23-28, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to the Master's School, a private college preparatory school in West Simsbury, Connecticut. Doctor Deborah Lee Bishop spoke of the orientation of faith in Christ, educational standards and enrollment procedures. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the domicile or residence of the chief of police for the City of Middletown, Connecticut. City Attorney Brig Smith explained what the ordinance requires, and if Erik Costa was found in compliance. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was the Stenson Award for Service presented by the Family Institute of Connecticut to Archbishop Leroy Bailey, senior pastor of the First Cathedral in Bloomfield, Connecticut. Pro-Life activities specifically was discussed as a primary basis for the award. The host was Gerry Williams.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was a review of the activities of the Family Institute of Connecticut during 2023. Guest Peter Wolfgang spoke of the pro-life, educational standards and LGBT legislative initiatives that the FIC lobbied against and saw defeated. The host was Gerry Williams.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction to the Cornerstone School of Manchester, Connecticut. Tonya Snyder provided an overview of the school, enrollment size, about the curriculum that runs from K-12 and the Christian basis for moral development of the students. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was the supply of blood for the treatment of patients in hospitals in Connecticut, the shortage of that blood supply, the need for additional donors during the holiday period and how to become a donor. The guest was John Godin and the host was Paul Kretschmer.