15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

February 10-15, 2020

Monday & Tuesday: On Mondays and Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will be speaking to the chief executive officer Drew Crandall of North East Christians at work, On these two day broadcasts, he'll talk about how the ministry began, and how God had blessed so many people through the 20 years. You can hear this interview at 3:15 AM 12:13 PM and 5:49 PM right here on WIHS Radio!

Wednesday: The Connecticut General Assembly entered the 2020 session last week with the issue of tolls on highways or bridges yet unresolved. The middle of this month was the latest prediction for a vote on a plan offered by the governor to levy tolls on trucks over selected bridges. Hear the views of investigative reporter Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute for Public Policy on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, the issue is the impact on children when parents divorce. Karen Kaye and her daughter went through such a hurting time a number of years ago. Both mother & child now are family therapists in Florida, partly in response to that time. Hear Karen Kaye talk about taking care of children watching their parents break up. It's on today's WIHS Journal—airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, the concept of out and about is taken to a new level, or perhaps we should say, distance. Gerry Williams grew up in Oakland, California and has been an Oakland Raiders NFL football team fan all his life. On a visit home earlier this year, Gerry spoke with several people on what it feels like when your team leaves town. The Raiders are moving to Las Vegas and Gerry is processing that. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown!
