

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of January 23-28, 2017

Monday & Tuesday: On Monday and Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Todd Johnson, author and speaker of his book, Developing a Sense of Urgency for Evangelism. His slogan is DYKJC, its short for “do you know Jesus Christ?” Have you ever been afraid or intimidated about evangelizing? Have you just forgotten about it? Todd Johnson says, to be encouraged you are not alone. His book, is an evangelistic ministry tool asking the world this question: do you know Jesus Christ? Our book is an evangelistic tool that guides you through the basics of Evangelism while igniting a fire that will never dim! You can hear more about this at 3:15am; 12:13pm and 5:49Pm right here on WIHS Middletown!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today’s WIHS Journal, hear from a doctor practice in the greater Dallas Texas who feels health insurance payments need to be reformed in a big way. Dr. Kevin Wacasey heads up the Colleyville Clinic, an urgent practice medical practice that does not accept health insurance but does allow patients to pay for care up front, patient to doctor. Dr. Wacasey is also a licensed insurance agent, but uses that expertise to point out what’s wrong with current health coverage. Hear Dr. Kevin Wacasey on today’s WIHS Journal, airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown, Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today’s WIHS Journal, hear the re-airing of a conversation Paul Kretschmer had recently with investigative reporter Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute for Public Policy. It’s a conversation on how states expect to legalize recreational use of marijuana, and collect taxes they envision as major revenue streams in a time of tight budgets, as in Connecticut. Hear how those hopes are unlikely to become reality on today’s WIHS Journal. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today’s WIHS Journal, hear of plans, long in the making, regarding redevelopment of the former Norwich State Hospital property in Preston. Several plans for the former mental health property have been created over the years since the hospital closed, but none have moved beyond the drawing board. Now, the Mohegan Tribal Nation has stepped forward with a non-gambling based plan for the property. It would include hotels, recreational facilities and more. Hear Mohegan Tribal Nation chairman Kevin Brown and Governor Dannel Malloy on today’s WIHS Journal. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
