

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

September 4-9, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on today's broadcast was a re-airing of the opening message at the Connecticut Business & Industry Association workforce forum. President Chris DiPentima spoke of the need to reorganize workforce recruitment to make Connecticut more effective as a state for business. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was a re-airing of the Firehouse School of Ministry with Mandy Adornoff as the guest. The school provides on-going education for believers without requiring them to go to seminary. It provides an education in the faith and witnessing for Jesus Christ. Anissa Porticelli was the host.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was about a conference entitled, "Open Air Women of the Kingdom." It's a conference for Christian women held in the outdoors that provides information and encouragement. The guest was Martha Rocco and the host was Anissa Porticelli.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these broadcasts was to provide a profile of a ministry in Massachusetts headed by a pastor from Central Connecticut. The guest was the Reverend Tom Vamosi who heads up the Cider Mill Christian Fellowship. He spoke of his rearing, making a commitment to Christ and planting a new church congregation. The host was Gerry Williams.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was an introductory profile of a book entitled, "Rediscovering the American Covenant." The guest was author Mark Burrell, who has researched the history and faith of those who founded and built up the United States. The guest was Paul Kretschmer.