

WIHS Journal Promos for the week of August 1-6, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On Monday and Tuesday's WIHS journal Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Steve Rhodes, the International Vice President of My Hope, and church relations director for the Decision America Tour. Our Nation is in need of prayer, this is why Franklin Graham has dedicated this year to travel to all 50 states to challenge believers to take a stand and take action. Steve, will talk about some of the recent rallies, and ways you can get involved in this great revival for our country. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear investigative reporter Marc Fitch discuss an I-95 corridor tax and the estate tax as levied in Connecticut. Marc is on the staff of the Yankee Institute for Public Policy in Hartford. He describes how several states in an alliance along the path of Interstate 95 are paying for a study on traffic load that may result in use taxes for users. He also will state the case for removing or reducing the estate tax on assets left behind at death that is among the highest in the United States. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Summer time is festival season. Recently, Gerry Williams attended the Greater Hartford Festival Of Jazz at Bushnell Park. Hear various sound clips from this annual event today and tomorrow beginning with Jonathan Butler at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS JOURNAL at 104.9 FM WIHS in Middletown!

Friday: Today hear Gerry Williams final segment of his coverage of the Greater Hartford Festival Of Jazz. That's happening today at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal at 104.9 FM WIHS Live and Local!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Healthline, hear about gallbladder disease and treatment. From the Middletown Health Department, community educator Lou Carta will ask questions and receive answers from Dr. Sarah Canavan, a gastroenterologist with Middlesex Hospital in Middletown. Many patients know about gall bladder stones, which are often present without symptoms. However, larger stones may block the exit point from the gallbladder and require surgical removal. Hear the WIHS Healthline with Lou Carta with Dr. Sarah Canavan today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
