Monday & Tuesday: On Mondays and Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking with Dr. Jeffrey Reynolds. He's a medical doctor, he also wrote a book. It's called " Be A Rock: Discovering a Firm Foundation for Life. On these broadcasts, he will share how God has changed his life after growing up very wealthy, going to the best schools. After all of that, he realized he was empty. That is when he had a personal encounter with God. He will speak about how you can build a solid foundation found in Christ. You can hear these broadcasts 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 right here on live and local WIHS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Gerry Williams, you'll find him out and about, looking in on Trail Life USA. It's program of Christian development for young men wishing an alternative to Boy Scouts. Ralph Wynn is a local adult participant leader in East Windsor. Gerry found Ralph at a local farm and asked about how this newer program for young men K-12 began and how it differs from a program drifting away from earlier principles. The WIHS Journal air today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—It's News & Public Affairs!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear the challenge a Christian believer may encounter in standing up for their faith, even in settings you wouldn't think would be a problem. Dr. Robert Lopez is a professor of English literature who's been discharged by two different universities for refusing to stop testifying to the sin of same-sex attraction. One of the schools is secular campus, the other a seminary. Hear about it all on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, you'll hear the latest update on where the Connecticut General Assembly appears to be headed as the next session begins in February, but there could still be another special session in January. Legislative Democrats believe they have enough votes in the state House of Representatives to pass a measure imposing tolls on trucks driving on selected highways within the state. Republicans continue to voice their opposition to any tolls on any vehicles in the state. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, investigative reporter Marc Fitch will draw on his contacts with state government to project what could be coming. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm, here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
