July 16-21, 2018

Monday: On Monday's WIHS Journal Anissa Porticelli will speak to Virginia Jones, about the free health fair. That's being held at the Crossroads Community Cathedral in East Hartford. This free event will offer children's activities, dental screenings, diabetic screenings, eye exams, grief and bereavement counseling, mammograms, nutrition, learn about women's hair loss too, and much more. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on live and local WIHS!

Tuesday: Gerry Williams was at multiple conferences this year. Today you can hear his coverage of the Winter Fire conference he attended earlier in the year where he conversed with a leader of a Biker ministry and a local pastor. That's happening today at 3:15 a.m., 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal--it's News and Public Affairs!

Wednesday through Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the views of an experienced counselor who has also taught other professionals how to counsel people in distress for a variety of reasons. Dr. Gary Lovejoy has taken a particular interest in depression and the people who suffer through. He's written two books from the perspective of women and of men. Hear Dr. Gary Lovejoy on today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer taken from his book, "8 Things Every Man should know about Depression. The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, we'll hear about an organization operated by volunteers to come along side and support family members and friends when a family member decides they were born in the wrong body and wish to transition to the other gender. It's called transgenderism and came close to home for guest Denise Shick. Her father decided to leave the male gender behind and become a female when Denise was just nine years old. Hear about the ministry called Help 4 Families on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
