

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Fourth Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

December 25-30 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was an introduction of the Apostle's Store in the Southington area of Connecticut. It's a Christian retail establishment that also presents an open mic night from time to time on Fridays. Program host Gerry Williams spoke with participants in the music that evening.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was the release of a new book about "Women in the Bible." Author Marina Hofman spoke about her research for the stories within and why she sees those stories as encouragement for women of today to strive for the best in their life. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Wednesday & Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was a re-airing of a broadcast discussing a peace and reconciliation headed by Israeli citizen Jonathan Feldstein. He heads an organization known as "Genesis 1-2-3 Foundation. It carries out an education, health and food work with Palestinian residents . The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Friday: The issue of this broadcast was a re-airing of a program about "Hartford's Got Talent." It is a localized form of other programs in the United States and United Kingdom featuring unknown performers in a forum to demonstrate their skills. Joe Young was interviewed by Gerry Williams.

Saturday: The issue of this broadcast was a re-airing of "Avoiding Physician Burnout." Gail Gazelle, MD described the hazards of long hours, little sleep and little family time for the modern medical doctor. She provided details of encouragement and consultation her website has to help professional colleagues. The host was Paul Kretschmer.