

WIHS Journal Promos Week of September 29 – October 4

Monday, September 29

The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm, here on WIHS-Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday, September 30

The Middletown Department of Public Health reaches out to the community through the services of Community Health Educator Lou Carta. In addition, Lou Carta also hosts the monthly WIHS Healthline program heard the first Saturday of each month. On today's WIHS Journal, Lou Carta will discuss his education efforts and the WIHS Healthline program that has been airing for over 20 years here on WIHS.

Hear the WIHS Journal today hosted by Paul Kretschmer at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS-Middletown--live and local 24/7!

Wednesday, October 1

On today's WIHS Journal, Lou Carta will continue yesterday's discussion of his education efforts as Community Health Educator for the city of Middletown and his duties as the host of the WIHS Healthline program.

Be sure to listen to the WIHS Journal today hosted by Paul Kretschmer at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS-Middletown--live and local 24/7!

(NEXT PAGE)

WIHS Journal Promos Week of September 29 – October 4

Thursday, October 2

The cost of a higher education is a concern to a great number of people and a news conference was held to publicize that concern recently in Hartford. On today's WIHS Journal, we'll hear excerpts from remarks made by what members call the "Higher Education, No Debt Coalition. The program draws from a broadcast first aired on the Connecticut Network.

The WIHS Journal airs today with Paul Kretschmer at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS--Middletown--live and local 24/7!

Friday, October 3

Christian organizations in developed portions of the world are striving to better equip Christians in less developed portions of the world to do the work of the Great Commission. Among those serving organizations is the Haggai (hay-GEE-eye) Institute. Through the cooperation of Mission Network News, hear Arthur Dhanaraj (DON-uh-rahz) describe the activities of the Haggai Institute for today's WIHS Journal.

The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 and 5:49pm, here on WIHS-Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday, October 4

The disease is known by the name of well-known New York Yankee first baseman Lou Gehrig -- but is also known by its abbreviation, ALS. In either case, the name identifies a disease that attacks the information pathways between the brain and the muscles of the body, causing paralysis and eventually, death. On today's WIHS Healthline, Middletown Community Health Educator Lou Carta will speak with Stacy Rahl from the Connecticut branch of the national ALS organization.

You can hear more about this topic at 3:15am, 12:13pm and 5:49pm right here on your local Christian Radio Station, WIHS, 104.9 FM.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of October 6-11, 2014

Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear the story of "Faith in the Fire House: The Lessons of Sandy Hook." Nelba Marquez-Green has written of what it was like to lose a child in the Sandy Hook School Attack and discusses it with Anissa Porticelli. The broadcast airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about the ministry that has been one of the most prolific is distributing copies of the Holy Bible in the last century. Paul Kretschmer finds out about the Gideons—a Bible ministry begun by two laymen one night at a hotel in Boscobel, Wisconsin that has gone to the corners of the earth. The broadcast airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear news from the front lines in Syria, where civil war continues and civilians are caught up in the destruction of a nation. From E-3 Partners, Alexa McDowell explains what the ministry is doing to alleviate the suffering going on in the midst of war. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about the latest Ohio-class submarine joining the US Navy. The Navy is adding new subs to the fleet, thanks in part to the work of Senators Richard Blumenthal and Joseph Lieberman. Electric Boat in Groton will build these additions to the arsenal. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown.

WIHS Journal Promos Week of October 13 – October 18

Monday, October 13

The ministry of Bethlehem Covenant Church of Worcester has continued for 120 years and that will be celebrated October 19, 2014 with worship and a concert by noted Christian performer Dave Boyer.

On today's WIHS Journal, hear the story of this congregation begun by Swedish immigrants in the 19th century. Bethlehem Covenant has not stood still as the character and residents of its neighborhood have changed, but rather continued sharing the Gospel and providing practical outreach through a medical clinic, among other activities.

The program airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS-Middletown, Live and Local 24/7!

Tuesday, October 14

On today's Journal, we continue with yesterday's discussion of the ministry of Bethlehem Covenant Church of Worcester. Hear Pastor Christopher Adams describe this fellowship of believers moving forward in faith as well as about a celebration featuring Christian music artist Dave Boyer.

The program airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS-Middletown, Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday, October 15

National Feral Cat Day is October 16, and on today's WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking with Russell Buregeron (BURSH-er-ron) who is an advocate for feral cats. In fact, he started the mission of East Windsor Feral colony which cares for abandoned, stray, and feral cats.

You can hear more of the mission and rescues of feral cats and how as a community we can help when you listen to this interview on your live and local Christian radio station, WIHS, at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM.

(NEXT PAGE)

WIHS Journal Promos Week of October 20 – October 25

Monday, October 20

Anissa Porticelli with "A Theology of Chaos (book on suffering) with Elysia McColley.

Tuesday, October 21

On today's WIHS Journal, hear portions of a presentation from Fox News Channel commentator Star Parker. In it, she comments on the state of America in the autumn of 2014 just in advance of the November 4th general elections. She spoke at the annual Family Institute of Connecticut banquet this month.

Hear her today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm on WIHS, Middletown, Live and Local 24/7.

Wednesday, October 22

On today's WIHS Journal, Fox News Channel commentator Star Parker continues her comments she began yesterday on the state of America in the autumn of 2014. Star Parker has become known as a conservative commentator, a member of the African-American community who has come from the streets of East Saint Louis Illinois to a respected and powerful role in the political world.

Listen to Star Parker on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS, Middletown, Live and Local 24/7.

(NEXT PAGE)

WIHS JOURNAL PROMOS October 29-31, 2014

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a ministry focusing on the persecuted Christian church around the world. From here in Connecticut, volunteer Bill Brown represents International Christian Concern. The ministry keeps tabs on persecuted Christians around the world, seeks to provide support for those believers and their families, and inform Christians in America of the plight of those assaulted for the cause of Christ. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm, here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: A civil war has been underway in Syria for some time now, and to add to the misery of Christians there, ISIS has now entered the battlefield. From Baptist World Response, Jeff Palmer shares details on the danger to Christians in Syria, and what is being done to provide humanitarian relief for those with so little of material possessions and persecuted for their faith in Jesus Christ. Today's broadcast comes through the courtesy of Mission Network News. You can hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: See the next page for the WIHS Healthline promo for today.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of November 3-8, 2014

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear about the Women of Faith conference in 2014. Casey Perez discusses this ministry intended to help women grow in their relationship with each other, and especially with Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. Hear this conversation with Anissa Porticelli today on the WIHS Journal at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about an upcoming outreach for the Gospel in the greater community of Tolland in northeast Connecticut. It's called the Tolland Lifestyles Expo and will feature and exhibit from Northeast Christians at Work, hosted by Drew Crandall. Hear him talk about taking Jesus into the public square on the WIHS Journal. It airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Anissa Porticelli you'll hear about an educational opportunity called, "God U Conference." Chris Petrovich is the guest who will discuss the advance in personal faith that can come as a result of becoming a better-educated believer. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear about a worthwhile activity for young people in the greater Hartford area. Gerry Williams is the parent of a teen who participates in the Hartford Hurricane youth football program. You'll hear from coach Phil Bryant who is asking for better maintenance of the football fields his program uses. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Saturday: The ministry known as FARMS is highlighted on today's WIHS Journal. FARMS provides micro-loans to help those in third world countries become more effective food producers on small farms for the benefit of all the people. Joe Richter represents FARMS International and provides the details on the WIHS Journal—airing at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of November 17-22, 2014

Monday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a program that helps those who work in children's ministry become better equipped to perform that important work. Dr. Andrew Knight discusses his book called, "Children's Ministry Leadership," with Anissa Porticelli. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Tuesday: Your good health and what the Bible can teach you about it are the subject of today's WIHS Journal with Anissa Porticelli. The title for today is "Iron for Zion." Anthony Oretade is the guest who will explain what he has learned from a careful reading of scripture and now passes along to others. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Wednesday & Thursday: An analysis of the 2014 election results is what you'll hear on the WIHS Journal today. The University of Connecticut has a program that does that kind of study and you'll hear from two experts. They are Roper Center Executive Director Paul Herrison and researcher Jennifer Dineen. The Roper Center is one of the most highly respected polling organizations in America and is housed at UConn. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Friday: Human service recovery from a major hurricane in the Far East is what you'll hear about today on the WIHS Journal. From AMG International, Bill Passions will share news of the devastation, but also recovery efforts through Christian ministry. The WIHS Journal today airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Saturday: Military forces require service members to be gone throughout the year, but no time is quite as poignant as the holiday time at the end of the year. "Operation Elf" seeks to assist service families with necessities at the end of the year when a family member is away. Hear Lieutenant Governor Nancy Wyman on today's WIHS Journal. the broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of November 10-15, 2014

Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear about developing a sense of urgency for evangelism from Todd Johnson. He speaks to Anissa Porticelli about the work of the Great Commission and how all-Christian believers are called on to carry out that work in the corner of the world they live and work in. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear about the Connecticut Bible society, the second oldest of its kind in the United States. The society executive director is the Reverend Adam Soderberg from south congregational Church in Hartford. He will share the work of Bible distribution and the Daily Bible Reading Guide that leads the reader through a directed study through the course of the month. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear about engineering innovation in Connecticut from Dr. Cato Laurencin from the University of Connecticut. He spoke at a recent meeting sponsored by the Connecticut Business & Industry Association. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown.

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal the issue is campus access by Christian ministries, especially those ministering to young people. A number of public universities are barring Christians because their statement of faith precludes leadership from those unwilling to sign a statement of faith. Greg Jao from Campus Crusade for Christ discusses this on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of November 24-29, 2014

Monday: Pastor Matt Harper and the Youth Group at Truth Baptist Church of discuss their production of the drama, "The Cross and the Switchblade." Anissa Porticelli conducts the interview, aired at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Tuesday & Wednesday: November staffer Denise Lopez with Anissa Porticelli discusses Adoption Month at the Connecticut Department of Children & Families at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm. The adoption process and how people apply to become adoptive parents is the focus.

Thursday & Friday: From Child Evangelism Fellowship, Brian Evelich discusses the outreach of this ministry to children and how both church groups and parental groups can contact CEF to become involved. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Saturday: UConn President Susan Herbst discusses the mission of the University of Connecticut as a prime education resource. Her presentation is drawn from a speech at the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce meeting for November 2014. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 1-6, 2014

Monday: The Christmas season drama, "Tiny Tim's Christmas" is discussed with Dan White from Ebenezer Baptist Church with Anissa Porticelli. The drama is discussed as its intended for the entire family and as a witnessing tool. The interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The Young Girls Mentor program, where mature women mentor young women in their formative years is discussed with Meriati Bayati. She has written a book on how such a program can be developed for the local church and talks to Gerry Williams on how the program works. This interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Thursday & Friday: An adoption program for dogs without homes called "The Queenie Foundation" is discussed with its founder Enid Breakstone. The program seeks to replaced dog pounds that euthanize unwanted dogs with shelters that house dogs till homes can be found for them. The interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Saturday: Middletown Health Department Community Educator Lou Carta conducts an interview on the dangers of hepatitis to the health of the liver in this conversation. His guest is Kathryn Jack representing The Live Foundation of Connecticut. The interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 8-13, 2014

Monday & Tuesday: The Middlesex Chamber of Commerce Role Model of the Year is highlighted in a speech from the monthly breakfast meeting. Sgt. Joseph Kapaczewski discusses his life and work in the military since leaving the greater Middletown area. Speech excerpts air at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm. Paul Kretschmer hosted the broadcast.

Wednesday: Bola Adelani discusses her work, "The Gathering Place," a community outreach ministry in Hartford with Anissa Porticelli. The neighborhood people the ministry seeks to reach out to with community services is a focus of the conversation, aired at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Thursday & Friday: A ministry called, "Asian Access" focusing on mission outreach in the far east is discussed by Peter Mazumba & Joseph Handley. Conducting the interview is Paul Kretschmer. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Saturday: The issue of personal development of the individual is discussed in the book and conversation "Halfway Done." Chandra Gonzalez is the author and is interviewed by Anissa Porticelli. The practical as well as spiritual profile of the person is included in the conversation, aired at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 15-20, 2014

Monday & Tuesday: Two missionaries serving in Peru share their experiences, from considering service in the foreign mission field to their most recent work before taking a furlough to raise further support. Peter & Bianca Wollensack are interviewed by Anissa Porticelli, which airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Wednesday: Christopher Baldwin & Tommy Cusack sharing their book, "New Life for Youth", discusses a ministry resource for the local church seeking greater effectiveness among youth. Gerry Williams hosts the conversation, airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Thursday: & Friday: The Connecticut Consumer Counsel discusses how electric utility rates are set and how the utilities submit rate changes for consideration by the DPUC. The guests are Senator Martin Looney and Elin Swanson Katz and Paul Kretschmer interviews them. The interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Saturday: The interview today is entitled "Orphan Heart" and focuses on recognizing the challenges children seeking foster or adoptive parents face at a young age. Paul Kretschmer interviews Erica Der and the conversation airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 22-27, 2014

Monday & Tuesday: On today's interview, Nicole Unice discusses her book "Start Here," a guide to church planting for those wishing to begin a new church congregation. The book is intended to be a "how to" guide for potential church members seeking to work with a church planter. Paul Kretschmer conducts the conversation, which airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Wednesday & Thursday: The Restored Hope Network, and outreach to those seeking to leave the homosexual lifestyle is discussed with network founder Anne Paulk, herself a former lesbian. The on-line website that provides connections and information for those seeking help is discussed. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Friday: The mission of Buckner International, a ministry providing assistance to adoption and foster care providers is discussed on this conversation with Greg Eubnaks. Buckner operations both in the US and foreign countries around the world and provides mutual support. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.

Saturday: "Live Healthy CT" is the topic today Paul Kretschmer discusses with Lucinda Hogarty. It is a program developed by the Connecticut Public Health Department and intended to benefit anyone living in the state by providing resources including information on living a healthy lifestyle within one's means. The interview airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm.

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of December 29-31, 2014

Monday-Tuesday-Wednesday: The ministry of Compassion Radio is discussed with its head, Norm Nelson. The ministry provides Bible resources, educational resources and encouragement for Christians who suffer persecution for their faith. The conversation with Paul Kretschmer airs over three days at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm.