

WIHS Journal Promos the week of January 4-9, 2016

Monday: On Monday Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Mike Schecher, (SHECK-er) the facilitator of The Alpha Course in Manchester. Alpha is an opportunity to explore life and the Christian faith, in a friendly, open, and informal environment. People attend from all backgrounds, religions, and viewpoints. You can hear more about this program being held at the Trinity Covenant Church in Manchester. You can tune in at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS!!

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about humanitarian aid to South Sudan being delivered by World Concern. Matt Ellingson will speak about opportunities to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with Moslems. Areas of the world where Christians are a minority are sometimes hard to reach. Even in areas like South Sudan, which split from the Muslim majority central government, still have Muslims who need to hear the Good News. Providing basic needs to embattled people is one way to open a door for that work. Hear today's WIHS Journal featuring Matt Ellingson from World Concern, produced in partnership with Mission Network News. The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm hear on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: Throughout this New Year the Journal will feature 12 redemption stories from the Salvation Army in Hartford. Every second Thursday of the month throughout 2016 you'll hear Gerry Williams interview someone from the program. To start the series off you'll hear from Capt. Leo Lloyd, senior administrator of the Adult Rehabilitation Center at the Salvation Army, the first of three segments. That's happening today at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal on 104.9 FM..... LIVE AND LOCAL

Thursday: Today you can hear Pt 2 of three of Gerry Williams conversation with Capt. Leo Lloyd of the Salvation Army in Hartford. Capt. Leo kicks off a series of 12 redemption stories from the Salvation Army that will be heard every second Thursday of the month throughout 2016. On this segment Captain Leo briefly talks about his life in the drug world, his experience with an evangelist, how he met his wife and the ministry that they have together and more. That's all happening on today's WIHS Journal at 3:15 am; 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm at 104.9 FM WIHS--YOUR STATION FOR INSPIRATION AND INFORMATION!!!

Friday: Today is the final segment of three with Captain Leo Lloyd of the Salvation Army. He kicks off a series of 12 redemption stories from the Salvation Army in Hartford that will air every second Thursday of the month throughout 2016. Today you can hear Capt. Leo explain an idea for a redemption line of clothing, the need for churches to partner with the Salvation Army with hopes that they would embrace, nurture and disciple those just coming out of the program and more. That's happening on today's Journal at 3:15 am; 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm at 104.9 FM WIHS--LIVE AND LOCAL!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about an assembly line re-opening at Kaman in Bloomfield. The company is well known as a helicopter maker, but also produces high tech products like the fuses that make weapon systems explode on command among other products. An assembly line employing a Connecticut workforce began production again recently and Governor Dannel Malloy visited to see the operation for himself and speak with workers. Hear this program today produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
