

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Second Quarter, 2022

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

May 30—June 3, 2022

Public File

Monday: The issue on this program was a new book from Pastor and prolific author the Reverend T.C. Brantley. The book is entitled, “No Guile” and examines how a person could live their daily life by being completely transparent and without deception. The host of the program was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday & Wednesday: This issue on this programs was interviews with various participants at “Connecticut Liberty Rally recently in Connecticut. The prime interview was with organizer Jonathan Johnson who spoke of returning life in Connecticut to a traditional moral and ethics standard. The host was Gerry Williams.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on this program was how people from the United States may choose to serve with Wycliffe Translators in overseas positions. The guests were husband & wife team Kevin & Jann Branford. They served in Central Africa in Cameroun. The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Saturday: The issue on this program was “Hospital Cost Transparency,” and examination in an ongoing series to show consumers how much it costs to receive treatment in many hospitals across the United States. Cynthia Fisher began as a consumer herself and became intrigued by how much simple procedures cost and why. She considers this a guide for hospital consumers of medical services. The host was Paul Kretschmer.