

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of February 8-13, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On Monday and Tuesday Anissa Porticelli will speak to Efrain Rosario from Phones for Jesus. Efrain started this ministry to help the less fortunate around him. His family grew up very poor, and this inspired him today to share his knowledge and gifts by using refurbished phones to help others. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS in Middletown!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about humanitarian aid to South Sudan being delivered by World Concern. Matt Ellingson will speak about opportunities to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with Moslems. Areas of the world where Christians are a minority are sometimes hard to reach. Even in areas like South Sudan, which split from the Muslim majority central government, still have Muslims who need to hear the Good News. Providing basic needs to embattled people is one way to open a door for that work. Hear today's WIHS Journal featuring Matt Ellingson from World Concern, produced in partnership with Mission Network News. The WIHS Journal airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm hear on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Throughout 2016 the WIHS Journal will feature a redemption story every second Thursday of the month of someone from the Salvation Army Adult Rehabilitation Center in Hartford. Today you'll hear Steven Whitaker; who not only went through the program successfully, he's now on staff. Hear his story and more on the Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM, Live and Local!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear views on the Connecticut state budget from the Republican House and Senate leaders in the General Assembly. Senator Len Fasano and Representative Themis Klarides (TEE-mus Clair-uh-dees) share their disappointment at how the budget talks went and approval of changes to the budget passed recently have now been undercut by another major deficit in the budget. The two leaders held a capitol news briefing covered by the Connecticut Network. Today, the WIHS Journal airs excerpts from that briefing. The program airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown--Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: More and more people are discovering the cost of the Affordable Care Act may not live up to its name and that those same people are looking for further ways to care for their health and members of their family. On today's WIHS Journal, hear Paul Kretschmer discuss the concept of health sharing. One form of health sharing is "Medi-Share," which advertises extensively. Twila Brase represents the Citizens Coalition for Health Freedom. Hear the broadcast at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
