

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

September 18-23, 2023

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was a visit about the life & music ministry of performer and writer Kathy Troccoli. She spoke about her life, performance and long career in ministry through Christian music. She also spoke of an upcoming performance in Connecticut. The host was Gerry Williams.

Tuesday: The issue on this broadcast was a biography of the Connecticut music performance group known as the Spiritual Souls. The group has been together for a number of years, beginning early in their lives. Life stories and musical performances were discussed at length. Gerry Williams was the host.

Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was a discussion of a book intended for young people called "Sheli-A Shepherd and His Sheep." The author, Deanna Danielle spoke about how she came about to write the book and the lessons intended for the children its intended for. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on this broadcast was how a business consulting firm works and what services it provides for the client list it develops over time. Derrick Baker is the founder and head of such a firm who explains how he has developed his business over the course of time. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was a repeat of a broadcast from earlier in the year with a patient rights advocate name Cynthia Fisher. She operates a website to assist people to find out how much the services provided to them by a medical facility costs in reality and how much they may be charged. Also how to negotiate reductions in those fees. Paul Kretschmer was the host.