

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

November 13-18, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was a prayer revival service in Connecticut called, "On Eagles Wings." The Reverend Felix Siaw explained his call to offer such a service in the state, how encouraging to discouraged residents he felt it would be and how listeners could participate. Anissa Porticelli was the host.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The issue on this broadcast was veterans whose remains are unclaimed by family and so are interred in the State Veterans Cemetery in Middletown. State Veterans Commissioner Ronald Welch, Governor Ned Lamont & Lieutenant Governor Susan Bysiewicz all spoke of the respect shown for those serving this country in the military. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Thursday: The issue on this broadcast was travelling with pets during the warmer and colder months of the year. Carol Osborne DVM discussed advance preparations to take if pets are to travel with owners using various transportation modes, and details such as carriers, food and water and so on. Paul Kretschmer was the host.

Friday: The issue on this broadcast was how a Christian service non-profit agency in East Hartford helps prospective foster and adoptive parents become trained and state certified to provide those services. The head of the Urban Alliance is Perkin Simpson. He introduced the service and the host was Steve Tuzeneu.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was about a Christian medical ministry both locally and in the world known as "Faith Care." It was started by medical staff and the University of Connecticut Health Center and has expanded its field of work greater over the last ten years. The guest was Dr. Peter Schnatz the current head and the host was Gerry Williams.