

WIHS Journal Promos the Week of April 18-23, 2016

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Suzette Brown from the Rehoboth Church of God in Bloomfield. She will talk about their upcoming trip to Israel to the holy land. Also she will expound about in-depth details about what the trip offer and how individuals from the last trip, were changed spiritually because of this trip. You can tune in and hear this interview at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on your live and local station W I HS!

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Mark Channon, the station manager of WI HS. He will talk about the bread of life live. It's a community event the first time ever for our listeners. Since the 1970s, dozens of area pastors have contributed devotionals to the W I HS bread of life radio series, now you can join us for an evening of singing testimony and special music. Mark hopes this event will lead to a trend of many more to come. You can tune in and hear this interview at 3:15 AM, 12:13 PM, and 5:49 PM right here on your live and local station W I HS!

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about land conservation and the preservation of open space. The focus on this broadcast is land set aside in the Old Saybrook area. Present to offer remarks that day was U-S Senator Christopher Murphy, and U-S House member Joseph Courtney from the Second District. Funding for open space comes from a variety of sources, with the Connecticut Department of Energy and Environmental Protection serving as a pass through agency to see the funds delivered to local authorities. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear an excerpt on the protection of small children from the Office of Early Childhood at the State of Connecticut. The Community Renewal Team with operations in Hartford and in Middletown staged a news conference recently to highlight the efforts underway to protect very small children from abuse and neglect. One of the speakers present that day was the Commissioner of the office of Early Childhood, Myra Jones-Taylor, Ph.D. Hear how authorities are working to protect the youngest and most vulnerable in our society on today's WIHS Journal. The broadcast airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: Every second Saturday of April is the opening day of Trout Fishing season. Gerry Williams rose up early in the morning April 9th to chat with some of the early rising fishermen at Walkers reservoir in Rockville, Connecticut. Catch his interviews from the banks of Walkers reservoir at 3:15 am, 12:15 pm and 5:10 pm on the Journal at 104.9 FM WIHS—Live and Local in Middletown!
