

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of July 25-30, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On Mondays and Tuesdays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli, will speak to Joni Eareckson Tada, the founder and executive director of Joni And Friends. Once again we are collaborating with Joni And Friends and their outreach of Wheels for the World, collecting mobility to less fortunate children, youth and adults in developing countries. The interview will highlight, the need for metal, collapsible, wheel chairs, walkers, canes and crutches. She will share stories of disabled individuals and their excitement, after getting a wheel chair. Also Joni will share, some of the new endeavors of the ministry and her struggles with adversity. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear how the mission work of organizations like Teach Beyond may be impacted by the recent vote to pull the United Kingdom out of the European Union. From Teach Beyond, George Durance discusses the challenges if the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland separate from the continent. Trade, citizenship requirements, and travel documents may all be more of a challenge if one standard is in effect between Britain and other countries, and another standard prevails between the United States and Britain. The WIHS Journal, featuring a Mission Network News interview airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Summer is when festivals are in high gear. Gerry Williams attended the 10th annual Hartford Gospel Fest. Today and tomorrow you can hear clips from this event on the Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM WIHS Live and Local!

Friday: Today part 2 of what Gerry Williams calls Sounds Of The Hartford Gospel Fest. Hear more clips from this annual event on the Journal on 104.9 FM WIHS Live and Local in Middletown!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, hear how Ctfastrak meets a farmers market in New Britain. Now that the busway in Central Connecticut has been successfully launched with many more daily riders than expected, the Connecticut Department of Transportation is looking for partners it can work with in the immediate vicinity of the Ctfastrak stations that will bring people to those stations beyond the twice a day commuter, five days a week to the stations more often, and draw the interest of other potential customers. A farmers market will be available in New Britain on Mondays for the next couple of months at least. Hear this report, produced in cooperation of the Connecticut Network on today's WIHS Journal. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
