Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Alan Marshal, and Ramona Hylton, the youth leaders of the Shiloh Christian church in Middletown. They are holding a free youth event with the theme “Glow up” they stated that it is time for the youth to Awaken to who God has called them to be. You can hear this interview at 3; 15am, 12:13pm and 5:49PM right here on WIHS Radio.

Tuesday & Wednesday: On today’s WIHS Journal, you’ll hear from a woman who reaches out to those contemplating suicide, taking their own life. Tamara Laroux experienced a very difficult time growing up in a dysfunctional family. At one point she felt the only way out was to end her life. God reached down before Tamara even knew Him. Now, with her husband, she speaks, counsels and produces materials to help those at the end of their rope. Hear Tamara Laroux speak with Paul Kretschmer today on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today’s WIHS Journal you’ll hear a conversation about the high suicide rate in the United States and what one organization is trying to do in reaching out to those who believe their life is such a mess that they have no choice but to leave this life behind. Dean Vander Mey from Set Free Ministries speaks about the programs they are running to help reach out the hopeless and give them the Gospel and a reason to live. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday:

Saturday: On today’s WIHS Journal, you’ll hear excerpts from the news briefing at Parkville Health Center where Governor Ned Lamont signed the legislation that raises the hourly minimum wage in stages to 15 dollars an hour. Organized labor supporters were on hand to provide a rally atmosphere as speakers commended the governor and General Assembly for passing the legislation. This program was produced in cooperation with the Connecticut Network. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
