Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about an effort to enlist the support and action of the local church to evangelize those who have not yet the Good News of Jesus Christ—the Gospel that brings life to the lost. The effort is called, "Imagine Zero" and is a ministry of the Seed Company, a Wycliffe Bible Translators affiliate. As it says on their website, Imagine Zero intends to help the local church become a part of fulfilling the Great Commission. Mark Matlock talks about this effort with Paul Kretschmer. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut.

Wednesday & Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer you'll hear the story of a man now in his 80s who vividly remembers the abuse he and a sibling suffered from a man when he was a child. Cecil Murphey has become an author and advocate for those who have suffered sexual abuse at the hands of adults. Hear the story of Cecil Murphey, author of "Shattering the Darkness on today's WIHS Journal. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal we'll hear about the responsibilities of the Economic Development Director for the City of Middletown. Thomas Marano holds a job with a high expectation for success in terms of the quality of life in the city, both for employers and consumers in Middlesex County. From the redevelopment of Main Street, known as one of the finest dining districts in the state to bringing Fed-Ex to the city in the form of a major fulfillment center housing hundreds of trucks and employing many residents, Thomas Marano has a lot riding on his work. Hear the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll hear an analysis on what kind of damage and impact the state budget crisis has on the cities and towns in Connecticut. Local governments across the state routinely receive aid from state tax revenues. At least they have in the past. Now, the state is facing massive problems of its own and cutting back state aid to cities and towns under the remaining months of the Malloy administration. Hear Marc Fitch from the Yankee Institute for Public Policy break this all down with Paul Kretschmer. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!
