Monday: Gerry Williams was out and about and took to the streets asking the question what does Christmas mean to you. Here the various responses happening today at 3:15 a.m., 12:13 p.m. and 5:49 p.m. on the WIHS JOURNAL IT'S NEWS AND PUBLIC AFFAIRS !

Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear the views of Dr. Paul Brownback of Greensboro, North Carolina. He believes the readiness to completely accept people permits Christians to certify that the behavior of some falls short of the standards set by God. He encourages Christians to continue to stand for the whole Word of God. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also, at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on your station for hope & encouragement—104.9 WIHS!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a personal witness story told by a man who chooses to offer homeless people zip lock bags with Christian literature in them. Aleksander Gorecki is a resident of New Britain who for the past three years has been offering an opportunity to discover Jesus Christ as he travels in momentary encounters. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am; also, at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on your station for hope & encouragement—104.9 WIHS!

Thursday: Public events such as sporting events, political conventions and music concerts can be places where medical attention is needed. There's an organization called Paradocs that provide medical personnel to care for people. Alex Pollak tells the WIHS Journal that limited time events are often places where Paradocs provides services for people. Here this re-broadcast of an interview aired earlier this year on the WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am, also at 12:13 & 5:49p, here on your station for hope & encouragement—104.9 WIHS!
