Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear some reflections on the last eight years of Connecticut history with Dannel Malloy of Stamford at the helm as the 88th Governor of Connecticut. Governor Malloy visited the Middlesex County Chamber of Commerce in December as chief executives have for the past thirty years. Governor Malloy took the opportunity to thank many of the people who have served under him in state government and talk about some of the successes he had while serving two, four-year terms. Hear this presentation, produced in part with the Connecticut Network on today's WIHS Journal. It airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Good News 4 Connecticut!

Wednesday: Tune in to Gerry Williams Out And About segment of asking total strangers about New Years resolutions. Hear their responses today at 3:15 am; 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the WIHS Journal it's News & Public Affairs!

Thursday & Friday: On Thursdays and Fridays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will be speaking to Ken Boone also known as Mr. Nick on the radio broadcast of We Kids. As many of you know that on November 8, 2018 wildfire known as the campfire in Paradise California took dozens of lives and destroying over 11,000 structures including 9,700 homes. Also, Mr. Nicks home and recording studio we're both lost in a devastating fire. It is only by the grace of God he and his family escaped the fire. You can hear more on the two-part broadcast of God's providence, his provision and how Gods miraculous power was with his people during this trial. You can tune at 3:15am, 12:13pm and 5:49PM right here on live and local WIHS!
