

WIHS-FM
Middletown, Connecticut
Quarterly Issues/Program List
Third Quarter, 2023

10 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:13 & 5:50pm Monday through Friday

15 Minute Programs Airing at 3:15am, 12:15 & 5:10pm Saturday

July 10-15, 2023

Public File

Monday: The issue on this broadcast was learning about how hospice care for those in the final months of life works, using the services of Athena Health in Connecticut provides those services. The Reverend Chris Adams is a chaplain in the Athena system and comes in direct contact with those people receiving hospice care. The host was Anissa Porticelli.

Tuesday & Wednesday: The issue on these broadcasts centered on the present age in the world and how the Bible reflects what will happen as the end of the world approaches. Paul Wozniak is a student of the Bible and has studied it carefully in concert with ongoing events in the news to inform others about the world order. His book is entitled "Bible Reflections on the Present." The host was Paul Kretschmer.

Thursday & Friday: The issue on these broadcasts was coverage of a movement known as "Kingdom to the Capital." Speakers address members of the public on what they can do to encourage responsible citizenship and adherence to traditional family values. Gerry Williams hosted a playback of views offered to him at the event.

Saturday: The issue on this broadcast was the Barnes Museum-- Within these walls are the lives of three generations of family history dating as early as 1836. Experience the world of the Barnes family through the artifacts, art, and history that defined their lives. Gerry Williams hosted a conversation with Christina Volpe