

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of September 12-17, 2016

Monday: On Mondays WIHS Journal, Anissa Porticelli will speak 3 of the participants of Celebrate Recovery, from the Church of the Nazarene in Manchester. The focus of Celebrate Recovery ministry is to fellowship and celebrates God's healing power through the 8 Recovery Principals and the 12 steps. The interview will also share many testimonies of healing through these meetings. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS.

Tuesday: On Tuesdays WIHS journal Anissa Porticelli, will continue the conversation with the Participants from Celebrate Recovery from the church of the Nazarene in Manchester, this time they will focus on the next step of Celebrate Recovery which is the Step Study Groups, doing book lessons and learner deeper about God and healing. You can hear this interview at 3:15am; 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on your live and local station WIHS.

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear a progress report on the use of the Ctfastrak commuter system as aired recently on the Connecticut Network. Connecticut Transportation Commissioner James Redeker met with Governor Dannel Malloy and members of the news corps and city officials in the Parkville neighborhood of Hartford. So far in the past year, CTFastrak has exceeded all expectations and can justly be called a success. The numbers of riders continues to rise and parking lots near stations are under consideration for expansion as more commuters chose to leave their cars along the bus route, not braving traffic in the inner city. Hear the WIHS Journal today with Paul Kretschmer, airing at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear how one pastor in Connecticut seeks to make understanding the four Gospels easier by creating a book that tells the story of Jesus in chronological order. Franklin Rutledge has done the editing to create the book, "Four Voices" and keeps the authorship clear by printing the words of each Gospel in one of four colors. Franklin Rutledge answered the call on his life to make the story of Jesus easy to follow by creating, "Four Voices" and you'll hear this conversation with Paul Kretschmer today on the WIHS Journal. The airtimes are 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer, conversation about the Connecticut state income tax continues 25 years after enactment by the Connecticut General Assembly under the influence of Governor Lowell Weicker. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, Zach Janowski discusses how far spending has risen over 25 years, way more than income tax supporters said at the start and way more than revenue increases during the same time period. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear excerpts from the message presented by Samaritan's Purse and Billy Graham Association President Franklin Graham. He has been traveling through the fifty states this general election year sharing the Gospel and explaining why God will deal with the problems America has, not people no matter how good intentioned, not even career politicians. The contents of this broadcast come from the Decision America Tour stop at Hartford on September 1, 2016. The WIHS Journal airs today at 3:15am, also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
