

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of May 15-20, 2017

Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal you'll hear excerpts from a town meeting presentation made by Connecticut US House first district representative John Larson in East Granby. In the immediate wake of the turn back of Obamacare by the majority Republicans in the US House, Congressman Larson addressed some of the concerns as a member of the Democratic caucus he has in changing the Obama administration signature legislation, changes that would likely impact just about everyone in the nation. Hear Representative John Larson from Connecticut's First District in the US House on today's WIHS Journal. The program airs at 3:15am; also at 12:13 7 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear about a proposed reporting change making its way through the Connecticut General Assembly. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, investigative reporter Marc Fitch says the change might require all charitable donations, not just small donors to be reported in the public record. Marc Fitch says that might discourage small donors from giving to the good works of their choice rather than have their name published in the public media or be inundated by others seeking funds. Here about this on the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday & Friday: On today's WIHS journal Anissa Porticelli, will speak to the Rev. Peter De Arruda, about the New York City Mission. NYSUM)(NI –SUM) equips youth and adults through life changing; hands-on, short term missions experiences. He will share some great testimonies from 9/11 and Hurricane Sandy, how God provided so they could help so many in need. Plus, be encouraged with the mission that they do in New York City. You can hear this interview at 3:15am, 12:13PM and 5:49PM right here on WIHS!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Journal, you'll here the story of a long term volunteer for the NYSUM ministry you've heard about for the last two days on the WIHS Journal. First you heard the story of the founder of NYSUM, now you'll hear about the experiences of a Connecticut volunteer for the last ten years or longer named Paul Hanson. Paul goes down to New York two or more weekends a year to minister to the people of the street, serving in a variety of roles as determined by NYSUM. In the process, Paul Hanson and people like him have connected with people and shared the Gospel, the Good News of Jesus Christ in a way that matters for eternity. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
