

WIHS Journal Promos for the Week of August 29-September 3, 2016

Monday & Tuesday: On today's WIHS Journal, hear an interview from a former public school teacher regarding the protection of the Christian faith among students in the public school. Stephen Williams himself taught in the public schools and saw for himself the challenges the secular world that Christian youth face. As an adult convert, he faced his date in court, and in the wake of the decision, chose to minister through an organization called "Prepare the Way." Listen to the WIHS Journal today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Wednesday: Word Of Life Youth Camp is a Christ centered Ministry located in the Adirondack Mountains in Up State New York on an island at Schroon Lake. It's been called the Cadillac of Christian camps. Gerry Williams had the opportunity to send his 14 yr old son for the first time to experience this powerful youth camp ministry. Today and tomorrow, hear his boots on the ground coverage of him waiting at the boat docks for the kids to disembark in order to get their thoughts and comments of their experience. That's happening on the Journal at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on 104.9 FM WIHS and wihsradio.org Live and Local 24/7!

Thursday: Today hear Gerry Williams final segment of his boots on the ground coverage of the Word Of Life youth campers final day as they disembark from the boats. You'll hear from various kids, including Gerry Williams son, talking about their experience on the Word Of Life Island in the Adirondack Mountains in upstate New York. That's today at 3:15 am, 12:13 pm and 5:49 pm on the Journal at 104.9 FM WIHS, Live and Local 24/7!

Friday: On today's WIHS Journal, the conversation will focus on the cost of education in Connecticut, especially in large cities like Hartford. From the Yankee Institute for Public Policy, investigative reporter Marc Fitch will highlight where the costs of operating a public school system arise from, and the revenue stream that is strained to meet those expenses. The Yankee Institute has issued a report on this issue, and this discussion may prompt you to take a closer look at the schools expenses in your community. The WIHS Journal with Paul Kretschmer and Yankee Institute reporter Marc Fitch airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:13 & 5:49pm here at WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!

Saturday: On today's WIHS Healthline focuses on the issue of traumatic brain injury, also abbreviated "TBI." Lou Carta, Middletown Health Department Community educator will discuss traumatic brain injury with Deb Schulanski from the Brain Injury Alliance of Connecticut. She will explain what a traumatic brain injury is, the many ways one may be injured and some of the avenues for help for the injured person and support for family and friends. The WIHS Healthline airs today at 3:15am; also at 12:15 & 5:10pm here on WIHS Middletown—Live and Local 24/7!
