CROSSTALK

5/13/2020 55 MIN Jim Schneider and Israel Wayne
M-F 2:00PM, Schneider interviews Wayne about his book entitled, "Raising Them Up: Parenting REPEAT 8:00PM for Christians." The following is a portion of a brief description of the book on amazon.com: "Most parents want a book that will 'fix their child' in three easy steps, in 30 days or less. While understandable, this expectation will never work. The problem lies far more with us, the parents, than it does with our child. If we don't understand that truth, we will only remain frustrated and disappointed with our child.
The far greater need is to fundamentally change our own hearts and minds as parents. As a principle, that simply MUST happen before any change will come for our youth. Christian parents may know a lot of Bible verses, yet don't have a Biblical theology of parenting. Here's the big picture: parenting is discipleship."

While understandable, this expectation will never work. The problem lies far more with us, the parents, than it does with our child. If we don't understand that truth, we will only remain frustrated and disappointed with our child. The far greater need is to fundamentally change our own hearts and minds as parents. As a principle, that simply MUST happen before any change will come for our youth. Christian parents may know a lot of Bible verses, yet don't have a Biblical theology of parenting. If we don't understand that truth, we will only remain frustrated and disappointed with our child. The far greater need is to fundamentally change our own hearts and minds as parents. While understandable, this expectation will never work. The problem lies far more with us, the parents, than it does with our child. If we don't understand that truth, we will only remain frustrated and disappointed with our child. The far greater need is to fundamentally change our own hearts and minds as parents. As a principle, that simply MUST happen before any change will come for our youth. Christian parents may know a lot of Bible verses, yet don't have a Biblical theology of parenting. Here's the big picture: parenting is discipleship."

ATTENTION PROGRAM DIRECTORS: The following are for your staff announcements to read as often as possible in advance of the daily airings of The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans. Thank you!

MONDAY, JUNE 15, 2020

As parents, we're often presented with "teachable moments" when our kids are extra receptive to the life-lessons we want them to learn. Well next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans will help us make sure we're not missing the lessons God wants to teach us during this current global crisis. Find out why it's more important than ever to be fully committed when you join us Monday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans here on [STATION].

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 2020

We've all learned recently how easily our idea of "normal life" can be turned upside down. But next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans will explain how God is using the pandemic for his purposes and help us make sure we don't miss the point of this divine disruption. Be sure to join us Tuesday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, here on [STATION].

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 17, 2020

"Don't worry; be happy" is a nice catchy phrase – but it's a pretty empty expression if there's no reality to back it up. Next time on The Alternative, Dr. Tony Evans will point out the difference between the bouncy cliché and the Biblical command as he explains how worship overcomes worry. Don't miss The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, Wednesday at [TIME] here on [STATION].

THURSDAY, JUNE 18, 2020

Even though the coronavirus pandemic has stretched us economically and stressed us emotionally, Dr. Tony Evans says that Christians possess a very powerful tool that can transform our personal outlook, especially in times like these. Find out what it is when you join us Thursday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, right here on [STATION].

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 2020

Dr. Tony Evans says that the coronavirus causes a variety of symptoms – but next time on The Alternative, he'll talk about a particularly dangerous one that shows up in people who don't even have the disease. Find out how to diagnose and treat it when you join us Friday at [TIME] for The Alternative with Dr. Tony Evans, here on [STATION].

Principles of Success: An Interview with Cheryl Bachelder, Part 2
What principles have you established that guide your decisions, your goals, your life? I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and this week Cheryl Bachelder, former CEO of Popeyes, is going to share the biblical principles she put in place for herself and her company that led to a turnaround in that restaurant chain. Her story will inspire you, whether you're a CEO or not. So please join us this week.

Are You an Undercover Christian? - I
Are you an undercover Christian? I'm Mary Lowman, and that's the question I'm asking this week on The Christian Working Woman. Are you secretly hoping nobody discovers that you're one of those born-again Christians? You know, it's easy to be fearful of letting people know you're a Christ-follower but honestly, it is unfounded fear. I'm going to talk about that this week and I think you'll find it helpful. Please join me.

Are You an Undercover Christian? - II
Do you feel like you change when you walk into the place where you work? I'm Mary Lowman, and sometimes there is a real fear of being too openly Christian where you work because of the backlash you'll get, or the isolation, or the outright rejection that could come your way. That's totally understandable, but I believe it also overblown. This week on The Christian Working Woman we'll talk about it. Please join me.

Incivility in the Workplace
Did you know that incivility is out of control? I'm Mary Lowman of The Christian Working Woman, and a recent study reports that 70 percent of U.S. adults say incivility is at a crisis level. Is that true where you work—or where you live? Well, I want to address that very situation today. I really believe that this lack of civility gives us Christ-followers an amazing opportunity. Please join me for this important discussion.

Letting God Search You - Interview with Lisa Bishop
This is Mary Lowman, and this week I will be joined by my friend, Lisa Bishop, who is Director of Women's Ministries at a large church in Chicago. She has very helpful insight into the issues we women face these days, and I am certain you will be encouraged by her. She's going to talk about what it means to Let God Search You. So, please join me this week for The Christian Working Woman.

Series: The Integrity Factor

Monday, June 8 – Christian Ethics, Part 1: Love, Sex, and Marriage, Part 1

What's it take to be the same person Monday through Saturday that you are at church on Sunday? The same person in public and private? How do you resist the temptation to compromise in unguarded moments? John MacArthur has answers, on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, June 9 – Christian Ethics, Part 1: Love, Sex, and Marriage, Part 2

The Bible addresses a long list of life situations you'll face . . . in fact, it addresses everything we need that pertains to life and godliness. And when the Bible speaks . . . no matter how controversial or personal the topic . . . we need to listen and not shy away. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur focuses on a sensitive subject: sex.

Wednesday, June 10 – Christian Ethics, Part 2: The Principles of Contentment, Part 1

What are you like when you're all alone? Do the things you say you believe in public—to people at your church or Bible study . . . even your closest Christian friends—match your actions in private? If not, why are you inconsistent? More important, what's the remedy? John MacArthur shows you, on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, June 11 – Christian Ethics, Part 2: The Principles of Contentment, Part 2

If you've ever struggled to be content, if you've found yourself wishing for a bit more of something . . . or maybe a lot more—stay here today as John MacArthur continues his look at link between contentment and a life of righteousness. It's part of his series titled . . . The Integrity Factor. Hear more, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, June 12 – Christian Ethics, Part 3: Steadfastness, Separation, and Sacrifice, Part 1

When the Bible says, "Be in the world but not of the world," where exactly should you draw the line? Should you not go to movies? Only patronize Christian-owned businesses? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you why "not being of the world" has more to do with your inward thinking than outward action . . . and why that's critical to having a life of integrity.

Series: The Integrity Factor, Cont'd

Monday, June 15 – Christian Ethics, Part 3: Steadfastness, Separation, and Sacrifice, Part 2

Mourning is a predictable, normal part of life. Thankfully, God's Word seems to speak even more powerfully in times of loss. When the Bible says, "Blessed are those who mourn," is that an affirmation that God's going to comfort you . . . bless you . . . when something really bad happens? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, June 16 – Christian Ethics, Part 4: Submission and Supplication, Part 1

When you think of living with integrity, you probably think of being honest in what you say, being faithful to your spouse, and having finances that hold up to scrutiny. Indeed, those are aspects of integrity. What role, if any, does the church—does your pastor—have in helping you maintain your integrity? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, June 17 – Submission and Supplication, Part 2

Standing before the Holy Roman Emperor, facing the threat of death, Martin Luther boldly proclaimed, "My conscience is captive to the Word of God." Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.
