

ISSUES - PROGRAMS REPORT

FOR

STATION KKPS

BROWNSVILLE, TEXAS

LICENSED TO:

ENTRAVISION HOLDINGS, LLC

QUARTER 4, 2014

OCTOBER 1, 2014 TO DECEMBER 31, 2014

STATION KKPS HAS ASCERTAINED THAT THE FOLLOWING
ISSUES ARE MATTERS OF CONCERN TO THE COMMUNITY IT SERVES:

1. HEALTH CARE
2. IMMIGRATION REFORM
3. EDUCATION
4. PUBLIC SAFETY
5. CHILD SAFETY
6. LOCAL AND NATIONAL ECONOMY
7. WOMEN'S ISSUES
8. LOCAL POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT
9. ROLE OF LATINOS IN THE COMMUNITY
10. LATINO YOUTH

STATION KKPS ADDRESSED THE ISSUES IT
HAS DETERMINED ARE OF CONCERN IN THE
FOLLOWING PROGRAMS, NEWS PROGRAMS, AND
PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

ISSUE:
HEALTH CARE

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 3, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Abortion Restrictions Upheld

A federal appeals court has allowed Texas to enforce tough new restrictions on abortions that will effectively close all but seven abortion facilities. Those facilities remaining open are in Houston, Austin, San Antonio, and Dallas.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 7, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Health Task Force Created

Governor Rick Perry is creating a state task force to respond to infectious diseases. Perry is calling on federal officials to put screeners in place to take temperatures and check the overall health of people entering the U-S at border crossings.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 22, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Health Care For Veterans

State lawmakers are working on a bill that would make the new UT-RGV a hub for veterans health care, and would enable more health care providers to serve veterans. The VA says the waiting times at the Harlingen VA clinic right now are among the longest in the nation.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 6, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Free Health Screenings

Free health screenings in Brownsville tomorrow. They'll be free for low income men and women, and proof of income must be shown to get the free screenings tomorrow at the Brownsville Planned Parenthood on Alton Gloor Road.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 12, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Health Care Grant

The health care for many low-income south Texans is getting a boost. A ten-million-dollar federal grant will invest in clinics and hospitals. Part of the money is earmarked to help those with diabetes, obesity, and depression. The grant was announced by Texas-Methodist Health Care Ministries of South Texas.

ISSUE:
IMMIGRATION REFORM

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 19, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Executive Action Requested

Lower Valley Congressman Filemon Vela is asking President Obama to act on immigration reform. Vela says it's the right thing to do for millions of people already here. The president has said he'd take executive action on the matter if Congress failed to pass an immigration reform bill.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 21, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Executive Action Taken

President Obama says the executive action he's taking on immigration reform is lawful and consistent with what other presidents have done. The measure would shield some five-million immigrants in this country illegally from deportation.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: December 5, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Governor-Elect Sues Over Executive Action

Governor-elect Greg Abbott has filed a lawsuit against President Obama's executive action on immigration reform. The suit was filed in Brownsville federal court, and it has the backing of 17 other states. A preliminary hearing is set for the end of March.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: December 11, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Lawsuit Joined

Seven more states have joined Governor-elect Greg Abbott's lawsuit challenging President Obama's executive action on immigration reform. The case is in Brownsville Federal Court. The defendants, including the president, have not responded to the lawsuit.

ISSUE:
EDUCATION

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 28, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Dean Addresses Students

The dean of the Valley's new medical school spoke to future students. Francisco Fernandez told them what they can expect from school. Since the school is not yet accredited, he could not talk specifics about what will become part of the new UT-Rio Grande Valley campus.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 19, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Students Can Transfer

Texas Southmost College students will be able to transfer to Our Lady of the Lake University. The schools signed the agreement Tuesday; it will allow students to take their community college credits to the university.

ISSUE:
PUBLIC SAFETY

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 2, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Former Deputy Sentenced

Former Hidalgo County deputy Robert Maldonado of Weslaco is sentenced to 12 years in prison for laundering 40-million dollars in drug money. Maldonado pleaded guilty to the charges in May. He was arrested near Victoria two years ago with a million dollars cash in the trunk of his car.

ISSUE:
LOCAL AND NATIONAL ECONOMY

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 20, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Business Is Booming

There's evidence that a lot of businesses want to be near the McAllen Convention Center. City leaders say 100-million dollars in new business has poured into that part of town in the last year-and-a-half, all without having been offered any incentives to open up shop.

ISSUE:
WOMEN'S ISSUES

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 3, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Abortion Restrictions Upheld

A federal appeals court has allowed Texas to enforce tough new restrictions on abortions that will effectively close all but seven abortion facilities. Those facilities remaining open are in Houston, Austin, San Antonio, and Dallas.

ISSUE:
LOCAL POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 6, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Registration Deadline

Today is the last day to register to vote in next month's elections. Your application has to be in the county elections office today, or be postmarked no later than today. Early voting begins October 20th. Election Day is November 4th.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: October 15, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Voter ID Reinstated

A federal appeals court has reinstated the Texas Voter ID law. A lower court ruled the law unconstitutional last week, but the higher court has upheld it for now. This means you will need to produce a photo ID for the upcoming elections. Early voting starts Monday.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 12, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

County Judge Appointed

Governor-elect Greg Abbott was in the Valley yesterday, and he said he's taking Cameron County Judge Carlos Cascos to Austin to be Secretary of State. Cascos will remain county judge until he's sworn in in January. County commissioners will then select a replacement.

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 14, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Panama Unit Sentenced

Former Hidalgo County Sheriff's Commander Joe Padilla is sentenced to just over three years in a federal prison for taking bribes, and drug trafficker Tomas Gonzalez got a ten-year sentence. Padilla testified about the connection between Gonzalez and then-sheriff Lupe Trevino, who's now serving a five-year sentence for money laundering.

ISSUE: ROLE OF LATINOS IN THE COMMUNITY

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 14, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Students Receive Honors

Two UTB math and science academy students head to Washington today to attend an academic honors program. 17-year-old Paul Lenz and 18-year-old Naomi Lucio will hear from Nobel Prize winners, and learn the latest in medicine and high-tech procedures.

ISSUE: LATINO YOUTH

Program: KKPS Morning News

When: November 14, 2014 at 6:50/7:50/8:50 AM

Students Receive Honors

Two UTB math and science academy students head to Washington today to attend an academic honors program. 17-year-old Paul Lenz and 18-year-old Naomi Lucio will hear from Nobel Prize winners, and learn the latest in medicine and high-tech procedures.