

KJHM-FM
Watkins, Colorado
Serving the Denver Metro Area and Eastern High Plains
Quarter 4 2018

KJHM provides programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern in our community and coverage area. A portion of community efforts include a physical presence at local events. The on-site issues of concern to our community addressed during the preceding calendar quarter were:

Date: October 20, 2018

Event: Drink For Pink

Description: The radio station teamed up with community leaders from our community of license and surrounding areas to host a Drink For Pink event. The event was hosted at a local night club and 100% of the proceeds were donated to local breast cancer charities.

Date: October 23, 2018

Event: Math Night

Description: The radio station showed up at several area high schools to feature a lively performance of mathematical challenges between on air talent and students. The end result was fun, but a greater understanding of student's needs.

Date: October 26, 2018

Event: Rink For Pink

Description: As a continuation of the previously described Drink for Pink, the radio station teamed with a local roller rink to raise money for cancer research. Local celebrities helped ring in a crowd of over 400 people.

Date: November 17, 2018

Event: Grilled Cheese Festival

Description: The Grilled Cheese Festival brought community leaders together with the less fortunate. Mayor Hancock of Denver was in attendance to lead the cooking. Nearly 900 homeless were fed and over 100 were matched with local community to jobs to help them move forward to their next step in life.

KJHM – FM
Watkins, Colorado
Serving the Denver Metro Area and Eastern Plains
Quarter 3, 2018

In addition to in-person events, KJHM also provides a weekly broadcast program which airs at 7am for 60 minutes. The program highlights people who are making a change in their life and in the community. Every other week, KJHM teams up with the Denver Police Department and other regional agencies for variation of the program titled, “Cops Care.” Each program strives to highlight issues of relevance within a 40 mile radius of Denver, including Eastern Plains towns such as Bennett, Strasburg, Watkins and Byers.

Program Air Date: October 7, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: The program discussed children that were on Fall Break and would likely be playing in streets and parks, especially with the time change upcoming. Residents were urged to keep an eye out and drive slow

Guest(s): Arapahoe County Sheriff Deputy P.L. Adams

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: October 14, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: Michael Dennis is a teen with big goals. Born without the use of his legs, Michael is now the assistant coach of the Plains Panthers soccer team. Michael describes his ability to relate to the game as he is limited to using his hands in life, without the use of legs, similar to the way soccer plays use only their legs. His key to success? “Everyone can still use their head!”

Guest(s): Michael Dennis

Contact Information: michael1998@yahoo.com

Program Air Date: October 21, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: We welcomed officers from several communities to discuss safety during Halloween. Officers commented on finding a “Trunk or Treat” type of event rather than traditional trick or treating. One officer described how marijuana edibles can be mistaken for normal candy. It’s critical for parents to dispose of suspect candy.

Guest(s): Officers from Aurora, Denver and Arapahoe County

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: October 28, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: Real life “Breaking Bad” was the theme of this week’s show. Guests Tyler and Markus spoke about how their lives changed when they began cooking and selling meth. Not everything is like the big screen as both now suffer from various health problems and nearly had their lives taken for competing with the cartel.

Guest(s): Tyler and Markus

Contact Information: 2ndchancerecovery@wix.com

Program Air Date: November 4, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: Police recruitment efforts are underway as many area agencies have received additional funding for the coming year to put more patrol officers on the street. The number of officers on the street directly correlates to reductions in crime and further success for business.

Guest(s): Denver Police Sgt. Jose Sanchez

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: November 11, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: Randy, a recovering alcoholic has worked with a team to renovate a former VFW hall near Lowry AFB for use as a team building and "alcohol free living unit." The new hall will be call "Recovery-Victory-Remembrance."

Guest(s): Randy Hall

Contact Information: cowboy23guy@msn.com

Program Air Date: November 18, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: A reduction in theft and assaults in the Denver metro area is reason to celebrate. The Denver Police, along with various other agencies laid out their plan to continue the positive trend through the end of the year and into 2019.

Guest(s): Various Police Agencies

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: November 25, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: Affordable housing continues to top the list of community concerns. Various members of economic development and town councils across the Eastern Plains joined us for a round table discussion on their increased efforts to bring commercial and industrial business out from Denver to towns only 20-30 miles away. Affordable housing and a lower cost of living provide encouragement for skilled labor to move, while tax incentives and local subsidies are attractive towards medium sized business.

Guest(s): Members of the Eastern Plains Council for Economic Development

Contact Information: jose@townofbennet.com

Program Air Date: December 2, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: Various police and fire agencies are teaming up with the radio station to collect food and toys for the Christmas Holiday. These goods will be allocated based on requests across Eastern Colorado and the Denver Metro area. A recent survey noted the lack of food during the holiday season as a primary concern in our listening area.

Guest(s): Officer Kevin Wallace, Denver PD

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: December 9, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: Alex was born without the ability to see. He spoke about how his lack of sight inspires him to embrace others without the concern for their race. Racial bias was listed as a top 10 concern of our listeners for 2018.

Guest(s): Alex Locker

Contact Information: None available

Program Air Date: December 16, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: School season is here and the supplies are running low. DPD along with the radio station is running a "first month of school" supply drive to help fill gaps in elementary classroom in the metro area. Crayons, pencils, erasers and glue are the most requested items from teachers.

Guest(s): Various patrol member of the Denver Police Department

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org

Program Air Date: December 23, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Sharing Our Stories

Description: We recapped our year in a review that touched on community issues, people finding a new calling in life and a celebration of the year to come. Several guests from previous shows were in attendance to recount their exploits.

Guest(s): Various past guests.

Contact Information: info@maxmediadenver.com

Program Air Date: December 30, 2018

Station: KJHM

Program: Cops Care

Description: Police are on extra patrol for the New Year's Holiday. Citizens are encouraged to use a taxi, ride-share or a sober friend to drive them during the holiday. Last year, Colorado saw an increase in DUI fatalities and police hope to curb that number this year.

Guest(s): Cpl. James Erickson

Contact Information: communityaffairs@denvergov.org