

KGTO-AM 1050 & 99.1
Tulsa
3rd Quarterly Issues/Programming

July/August/September 2023

The following issues were identified as significant and addressed by KGTO radio to serve the community and act in the public interest as set forth by the Federal Communication Commission.

Description of Program Providing Most Significant Treatment of Community Issues

Program	Days	Times	Duration
Open Mic	Monday- Friday	9am- 11am	2 Hours

The above program is locally produced and presenting a mix of local news in Tulsa, Oklahoma City as well as national news. The Program also consist live phone calls from local listeners.

Issues

The station has identified the following as significant issues facing the local community in this quarter:

1. Daily Newscast: Local (Tulsa & Oklahoma City) and nation daily news cast 10 minutes
2. Social Issues: Covered social issues and needs.
3. Politics: Covering local, state, and national politics.
4. Public Safety: Covered issues related to police, and crime.
5. Education: Covered issues related to education
6. Health: Provided information concerning health issues in the community.
7. Phone Calls: Conversations with local listeners about daily issues they're dealing with.

July 2023

It is our endeavor to serve the public interest. Here at KGTO Heart and Soul 1050 AM & 99.1 FM, we continuously broadcast issues of concern to Tulsa and its listening public. The following is a brief description of these issues that were addressed during this 3rd quarter. We are airing PSA's informing the listeners up to date on various health concerns such as: Disability Pride Month, Mental Health Awareness, as well as Free Health Screenings and Free Food Giveaways.

We continue to broadcast daily and weekly briefings in Tulsa with information and services that will educate our listeners. Robin Khouri with (Light Christian Academy) explains how the school is beneficial to children that have loved ones that are incarcerated as well as giving them a top-quality education through a Christian based curriculum. Sherri Coleman and Alyson Parker with the Infant Crisis Center shared the variety of services they offer such as: one week supply of diapers as well as formula. These services as well as others are available four times annually to children from birth to age 3. County Commissioner Carrie Blumert touched on the potential new location for the Oklahoma County Jail sites that has now been narrowed to three sites. Representative Ajay Pittman came on and talked about the State Capital and issues the listeners should be aware of. Donna Thompson talked about the 17th Annual Awareness Program in the state prisons.

August 2023

We continue to broadcast daily and weekly briefings on the upcoming events. Marilyn Hildreth with the Freedom Festival, talked about Clara Luper being honored during the Oklahoma Freedom Fiesta celebrating 65th Anniversary of the Oklahoma Sit in. Senator James Lankford discussed how he calls for immediate improvements to immigration as well as speaking on the solutions he proposes to President Biden on open borders. The Senator also talked about the 3rd anniversary of the signing of the Abraham Accords with Israel, the prevention of government shutdown, and the National Guard & operation Lone Star. Wyndell Barnes with Journey 2 Win LLC talked about helping kids. John Bilbury, treasurer, and Vickie reporting secretary talked about Trice Hill Cemetery. Pastor Manning (T.A.S.K) is an outreach Ministry that helps at risk kids and young adults build better relationships in their community as well as with law enforcement by engaging in conversation on a positive note in hopes of building respective relationships. Lt. Wayland Cubit talked about safety in the public schools. Chevon King from Tulsa talked about real estate in Tulsa. Commoners Carrie Blumert talked the county jail and other issues in her district.

September 2023

We continue to broadcast daily and weekly briefings in Tulsa first with Attorney Hanson Dirani who touched on a variety of topics that include: Nursing Home Abuse, Auto Accidents, and Sexual Abuse and children self-esteem. Mr. Maurice Nelson with Suites 4 Life who help dress young men in Tulsa with new suites and interviews. Liz and Louisa (Kirkpatrick Foundation) Historic Red Ridge estate in OKC to become nature preserve which is a historic 133-acre estate in Northeast Oklahoma City. Rep Regina Goodwin from Tulsa touched on the following topics: Prager U Kids and how this will our kids with misinformation material, Ryan Walters aims to remove the Superintendent of Tulsa Public School and why? Stephanie Howard with Making