In the courtroom Monday former President Trump was sitting between his attorneys. The judge has already ruled that he committed fraud by inflating his net worth by as much as 2.2 billion dollars. Now he could be forced to give up control of some of his New York properties. The former president and the Attorney General also made their cases to the media. No matter how powerful you are, or how much money you have, the law is both powerful and fragile and today in court we will prove our case.

CBN's operation blessing is helping people around the world support themselves with their own businesses. Apath and his wife ran a small beverage stand in Thailand but it brought in barely enough for them and their nine-year-old daughter to live on. Through operation blessings microenterprise program, they learned how to run a successful mushroom farming operation and they were given the supplies they needed to get started. The father says success at farming has given him and his family hope to serve God and now they also plan to give back to the church so that they can help others.

Dr. Faron Cole Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. Is cremation okay? We need to understand that cremation is something that is really not covered by the Lord and it doesn't matter how you die. You'll find that the traditions of society handle cremation differently and therefore, you know, you think the Lord has to account for that because men have died at sea, eaten by sharks, or whatever. There're men that have been burned at the stake. Wonderful men. Like John Wickliffe. So just to let you know cremation is acceptable at least in the scriptures that I see.

Dr. Faron Cole, Dr. Kathaleen Wuopio, Pastor Tim Neal, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II. Is it ok to watch church services on TV, radio, or the web? It's always good to watch anything spiritual to feed your spirit. There's nothing wrong with that, as long as you're not substituting that with going to church because you still need to be a part of that body.

Apostle J. K. Rodgers, Pastor Luvirt Parker, Overseer Renea Collins, Pastor Ronald Turner, Jr., Bishop Demitius Davenport. Is it okay to send my kids to public school? I would say, not only is it not wrong to send your kid to public school because it is the responsibility of the parent to raise their children in the Lord. Not only is it not wrong, for some families, I encourage them to send their kids to public school. Because they need that representation in public schools.

Here in Washington the US House of Representatives voted late Tuesday to censure democratic congresswoman Rashida Talib over anti-Israel remarks. 22 Democrats joined Republicans in voting 234 to 188 to formally rebuke the Palestinian American lawmaker from Michigan. Talib has defended a controversial phrase used by anti-Israel protesters which calls for eradicating the Jewish nation. In a video she warned President Biden that people will remember his support for “the genocide of the Palestinian people”.

The Supreme Court is indicating it will weigh in on whether President Trump can stand trial for criminal charges allegedly committed while in office. Special counsel Jack Smith asked the high court Monday to rule on whether Trump can be prosecuted on charges he plotted to overturn the 2020 election. Smith is seeking to skip the federal appeals court and avoid delaying the trial until after next year's presidential election in which Trump is the Front-runner. The Supreme Court asked Trump's attorneys to respond to the special council's motion by next week. The court does not meet again until January 5th.

The President of the University of Pennsylvania resigned after outrage over her testimony to Congress last week. Liz McGill would not say that calling for the genocide of Jewish people violated school policy. A host panel is investigating Penn, Harvard and other universities for their failure to address anti-Semitism. In some cases, Jewish students are suing their schools because they don't feel safe on campus. CBN's Brody Carter reports from New York. The Jewish population in New York City is roughly 10%. At Columbia University they're in the top 15 of private universities by Jewish population and Jewish students that we've talked to at CBN they tell us they simply don't feel safe here. One freshman even filing a lawsuit against the university for failing to protect her against anti-Semitism.

One month after Hurricane Otis struck Mexico many families in small villages are struggling to put food on the table. Before the hurricane, Raquel ran a small business selling corn and plantains in her community but she lost all her equipment in the storm. Without her business she and her children relied on the kindness of neighbors to make ends meet but she still struggled to find food and water. That's when operation blessing stepped in by providing critical food and water supplies. When the ministry brought food and clean water to her village Raquel no longer had to walk long distances to get help for her family. Operation blessing went a step further purchasing all the tools and materials she needed to restart her business. Now Raquel's back to work and able to provide for her family once again.

Pastor Timothy Walker, Pastor Ricky Holmes, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Ronald Turner, Pastor Joe Spence. What is a church? By definition, it means a gathering of individuals. When the Bible references it, it means the Christian church which is the body of Jesus Christ. The church could consist of 2 people or a multitude, the numbers are not important. What is important is that we recognize the church is held dear to the heart of God. God purchased the church with his own blood.

41 states are suing tech giant Meta over youth mental health issues stemming from the use of its social media platforms. Multiple lawsuits charged Instagram and Facebook are designed to addict young people and Meta uses the platforms to collect data on children without parental consent. The states are seeking financial damages restitution to those harmed and an end to alleged illegal practices. Meta says it is working to create safer environments for young people and is disappointed by the lawsuits.

A politician in Finland who endured a year's long legal battle for sharing her biblical views on sexuality has been found not guilty of hate speech. In 2019, Dr Pivi Rosenan a member of The Finnish Parliament tweeted a text from the book of Romans which calls homosexuality a sin, adding to her legal troubles a radio interview and a pamphlet she'd written on Biblical views on sexuality 20 years earlier. The Helsinki court of appeals today upheld a lower Court's ruling unanimously dismissing three criminal charges against she could have faced two years in prison or a heavy fine.

Pastor Eugene Norris, Pastor Samuel Vicente, Pastor Joseph Colini, Pastor James Friedman, Bishop Demetrius Davenport. What does the Bible say about getting over the loss of a loved one? What I could do is I can give you some scriptures to comfort you in this season of your life. Let me give you a Psalm 73:26. It says this, it says my health may fail and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart. He is mine forever.

Dr. Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. What does the Bible say about feeling comfort by the presence of a loved one who has passed away? Well, the Bible teaches that if a loved one passed away, there's comfort in knowing that you will see them again. Even as in 1st Thessalonians, chapter 4, we see talks about the rapture of the church and in that he says that we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. And so, we shall ever be with the Lord, wherefore comfort one another with these words. So, there's a great comfort in knowing that you're going to one day see your loved one.

Pastor Brandon Hollis, Pastor Tim Schulte, Pastor Mark Galambos, Pastor Jeff Haygood, Pastor Melvin Steed. What scripture is appropriate to share with someone who is dying? One of my go-to verses that offers reassurance to that and comfort is John 4:14. Let not your heart be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house there are many rooms. I go to tell you I prepare a place for you. If I go to prepare a place for you. I'll come and take you there myself that where I am, you may be also and you know where I'm going. Those are great words of encouragement and something that every believer can be reassured of their salvation and their eternal destiny with Jesus.

Dr. Faron Cole Faron Cole, Pastor Timothy A. Roeser, Pastor David Hughes II, Dr. Kathleen Wuopio, Apostle Jonathan Richardson. If my son and his girlfriend move into my home upstairs, is that a sin on me? I believe that you're responsible for your home and the sanctity of your home. I believe that if you allow things to go on in your home that are inappropriate and wrong, then you would be charged, you know, by the Lord because the Lord calls us to be watchman upon the wall and that's of the city. But also, I think watchman of our own homes. So, in a situation like that, personally, I would not allow it. Now, maybe I'm just old school. I don't know. But I believe that God is a offended when we allow sin to propagate in our own home.
