

	The following is a list of the most significant programs broadcast by this station during the past quarter in response to community issues.
	KRNN Quarterly Issues/Programs List	2023 Q1
	Issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Description
1	Environmental degradation of unique ecosystems	Soundings	1/19/2023	10:01	3:30	KBBI reports that City of Homer is working on a number of initiatives to increase non-motorized transportation and pedestrian trail access around town
2	Discrimination against LGBTQ community	Soundings	1/24/2023	10:01	3:30	News story from Homer reports that the city's Library Advisory Board unanimously voted to uphold a decision to keep 55 books in the children's section of the public library.
3	Impact of COVID-19 on economic livelihood of local artists and musicians	Soundings	1/26/2023	10:01	3:30	Sitka public radio reports that the Sitka Community Orchestra has returned to live rehearsals after 3 year hiatus (first performance is March 10)
4	Accuracy of hazardous weather predictions	Crosscurrents	2/17/2023	8:01	3:30	KYUK Bethel reports that the National Weather Service is reshaping their nearshore zones for coastal waters to improve accuracy of forecasts
5	Oppression of Indigenous music and song	Reclaimed	2/8/2023	4:00 PM	59:00	This episode highlights how the unique lived experiences of indigenous people has shaped their influence in music of all genres as well as the creation of new eclectic styles
6	Cultural appropriation of Indigenous art and influences	Reclaimed	2/15/2023	4:00 PM	59:00	This episode celebrates the Indigenous legends of rock and roll and highlights their contribution to the genre
7	Sociocultural isolation of multiracial people	Indigenous in Music	2/6/23	4:00 PM	5:00	Japanese-American, Mexican, and Indigenous artists Raye Zargoza shares her struggle to find acceptance as a multiracial woman
8	Representation of Indigenous people in mainstream media	Indigenous in Music	2/6/23	4:00 PM	5:00	Raye Zargoza talks about her work writing music for the cartoon Spirit Rangers, which premiered on Indigenous People's Day and features all Native American writers and cast
9	Lack of childcare services	Soundings	2/23/2023	10:01 AM	4:00	KCAW reports that a group of Sitka teens are enrolled in a 15-hour babysitting certification course in order to expand childcare capacity for local families
10	Displacement of Indigenous communities	Reclaimed	3/1/2023	4:00 PM	59:00:00	This episode acknowledges the lands and languages originally inhabited by Indigenous people