

ZONE COMMUNITY ISSUES SHOW QUARTERLY REPORT

DETERMINATION OF UTAH QUARTERLY ISSUES

FOR STATION: KZNS AM/FM

April 2021 – June 2021

Station management has done the following in determining what the key issues are for our community of license – Salt Lake City (KZNS AM), and Coalville (KZNS FM), UT.

Show Time: Saturdays @ 5:00 AM & Sundays @ 7:00 AM --- Length: 20 minutes

April 3&4:

Update on the Utah Vaccinations numbers in the state of Utah. The state is off to a tremendous pace as the many are getting vaccinated. We played the comments from recent press conference of Governor Spencer Cox who discussed that while cases continue to drop in Utah, there has been a plateau and that further diligence is needed.

April 10&11: Replay of previous week's show

April 17&18:

The great mask debate! Comments were played from a recent interview with Dr. Fauci to discuss if masks continue to need to be worn by those who have been vaccinated. Do masks still need to be worn outdoors and in areas where social distancing is being maintained. We also go over the latest CDC recommendations for masks.

April 24&25: Replay of Previous week's show

May 1&2, 2021 – Ajay Salvesen updates the latest recreational activities throughout Utah. From hikes to celebrations to theatre & arts. There is so much going on as we hit the beautiful early summer time & try to bring the community lives back to normal.

May 8&9, 2021 – Executive Director of Utah Museum of Fine Arts, Gretchen Dietrich joins the show to talk about what it was like to have their museum open during last year & COVID obstacles. Gretchen tells us about the wonderful events & opportunities coming up this year & what makes the UMFA so special to her & her colleagues.

May 15&16, 2021 – Ethan Watson, the author of “A Boy & His Elephant” joins the Community Issues show to talk about how the idea for this book came to his mind, the joy & great lessons the book can bring us, if there are any more future books coming out & why this world is blessed with great kids. He discusses why Utah had such an impact on his upbringing and how it impacts his writing.

May 22&23, 2021 – Rerun (Ethan Watson)

May 29&30, 2021 – Vice President of Corporate Marketing & Communications for LHM Megaplex Theatres Jeff Whipple joins the show to talk about what great things Megaplex Theatres has coming our way THIS summer! Jeff tells us his go-to movie snack, favorite movie, favorite actor, what makes Megaplex so great that it's topping the national rankings for opening of major Hollywood blockbusters & independent film titles.

June 5&6, 2021 – Morning Radio Host, Podcast Host & a immediate rise in the radio industry McCall Taylor joins the show to talk about her struggles with an eating disorder, having a great support system around her, the use of social media

& how it can positively affect others around you. She also discussed the state and social services available that helped her through her struggles.

June 12&13, 2021 - RERUN - McCall Taylor

June 19&20, 2021 - Ajay Salvesen talks about the appreciation for Utah Jazz fans & their passion for the game. He reminisces of when his dad took him to his first Jazz game. And on Fathers Day Ajay talks about what his father meant to him as Ajay was adopted from Calcutta, India but was still able to build a strong relationship with his dad that still holds today.

June 26&27, 2021 - Aerial Course Director of Northern Utah & Team Building Program Director Patrick Bentley talks about how his program has changed lives for youth in Utah, including his. What his goals are when doing Aerial Course Programs are & how those goals have never changed from when he first started this. Patrick talks about his favorite people he's worked with in doing these programs & where he hopes it can build from here.