ISSUES	PRO-GRAM	DATE	TIME	LENGTH	AM /FM	PROGRAM DESCRIPTION
ADDICTIONS	Com-Spot	15-Jan 16-Jan	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Gertrude Matemba-Mutasa MN Dept of HS - Opioid addictions – Over 100,000 opioid related deaths in the US April 2020 – April 2021. MN over 1200 deaths. Legal or prescribe by doctor. Changes brain chemistry and easy to become addicted. American Indians and African Americans have a higher rate of death over doses. Antidote used by first responders is a tool to fight against the addiction and saves lives. But also need to educate that it can be very addictive.
BUSINESS	MCL	05-Jan	6:00 a	2 hours	AM	Bill English - Bible and Business Twitter: @BibleBusiness www.bibleandbusiness.com Dave Ramsey Apple becomes first $3T company
BUSINESS	MCL	19-Jan	6:00 a	2 hours	AM	Bill English - Bible and Business Who benefits from inflation? Which leads us into a conversation about taxes:
BUSINESS	MCL	16-Mar	6:00 a	2 hours	AM	Bill English - Bible and Business China, pandemic, Ukraine war are ending the tech industry's globalist dream We have entered year 3 of Covid-19. Do you remember what you thought in March 2020 and did you have ANY idea it would last this long? Here's an interesting approach to the supply chain challenge: Ford will ship Explorers without all the parts – and add them later. Expect to see “fuel surcharge” on everything from Uber rides and deliveries to services that require someone to come to your house. This feels like “know your business and your brand even if the world gets confused” – Dolly Parton removes herself from the Rock & Roll hall of fame nominations. Relationships, work, public opinion and conflicts of interest: Like Russia's seizure of assets from private companies?
BUSINESS	Com-Spot	05-Mar 06-Mar	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Laura Bordelon MN Chamber - pt1 business climate. – The MN Chamber is 110 years old and focus on natural resources and transportation business and close to Canada. Fortune 500 companies in MN use Local vendors and suppliers support the state .Small and med size companies are also sophisticated and important to MN economy. Big issues for business in MN might be tax climate and regulatory climate and population growth is slow. Work force growth has decreased over the past 10 years. (all different age brackets – moving and not coming back)
BUSINESS	Com-Spot	12-Mar 13-Mar	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Laura Bordelon MN Chamber - pt 2 business climate. Over half of MN population are working for small and med size businesses. These business struggle for permits, taxes and growth. Fifth highest income rate in the nation. Fair share argument – tax rates. MN do indeed pay their fair share. Supply chain distribution due to Covid is harsh. Many business closed due to Covid. Also hard to find workers – adding benefits - hard to get and retain workers.

CHAIRTY	Com-Spot	19-Mar 20-Mar	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Kate Shermer -Arrive Ministries pt 1 refugee update – mission welcome new refugees from all over the world. Christian nonprofit organization. Class management for first 3 months and many volunteers help. Staff helps to find employment. The need has increased over the last 6 months. Number of refugee is capped by government. Afghanistan (have been given temporary status) usually need to wait 17 years but in the last six months resettled over 127 individuals. There are also host homes available (church based volunteers) Opportunity – Good Neighbor Program – team approach (8-10) help through a year – bringing to social services, helping with English and understand mail. Also bring them to zoo, Twins Game etc. Loving holistically.
CHARITY	Com-Spot	26-Mar 27-Mar	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Kate Shermer -Arrive Ministries pt 2 refugee update – Mobilizes the church to help refugees get resettled. Arrive works in the Twin Cities as well as in the outlying areas. 95% are joining families and friends in the US. Volunteer groups (8-10) committee to a families for one year. Showing the love of Christ to the refugees. Some refugees have waited over 17 years in camps. The goal is to get back to their homeland. The government agencies are helpful and partner with Arrive Ministries. List of needs: praying for refugees (adjusting), staff and volunteers.
CHARITY/CHILDREN	SLL	28-Jan	3 p	55 min.	AM	Several representatives from One Child, an organization providing faith-based programs and teachings, education, health care and resources, and positive relationships with children in need around the world.
CHILDREN	LB	15-Oct	10 am	4 hours	FM	Pointed listeners to read aboutLevi Lusko. He’s a pastor, husband, and father to three girls and a boy. It used to be four girls and a boy. But at age 5, his little girl Lenya had a severe asthma attack while the family was wrapping Christmas gifts and died in her daddy’s arms before the ambulance got there. Levi went on to write a book about that experience “Through the Eyes of a Lion.” In an effort to help other kids bring out the lion inside of them, he wrote “Roar Like a Lion: 90 Devotions to a Courageous Faith.” Levi talks with me about how he got through the most excruciating time in his life and what he hopes kids who read this book will take away from it.
CHILDREN/GOVERNMENT	BP	05-Nov	7:26 am	1 min.	AM	John Stonestreet & Maria Baer Kids Are Given to Parents, Not the State Parenting, State, Government
CRIME	Com-Spot	12-Feb 13-Feb	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Jay Henthorne Richfield Police –Carjacking – up over 500% since Nov 2019 in Minneapolis and continues to increase. Situations are crimes of opportunity. Task forces are working on this crime. How do we reduce the opportunity – know your surroundings – well lit, no packages in the back seat, have your keys ready and once in the car lock the doors immediately. Individual may see you when you are vulnerable. Should one resist? Don’t put yourself in harm’s way – call police. Trends are individuals who threaten harm as well as groups when one distracts and another will take the car. Changes in law? Working w/ legislators – higher penalties.

CULTURAL/POLITICAL	MCL	10-Jan	6:00 a	2 hours	AM	Adam Carrington - Hillsdale College SCOTUS and the Vaccine MandatesAnd this about an underlying issue about separation of powers (though this article is sad about it) In light of the anniversary of January 6, we might revisit the Electoral Count Act David French/Sarah Isgur legal podcast brought back up. Mainly, as they say, it needs revised because it dictates what happens in counting those votes and isn't well written. Could be a way of saying something concrete to do for both sides to lay rules of the game to prepare for future contests. A way of doing something other than attacking the other side. And Mitch McConnell seems open to it somewhat Continued fallout politically for teachers' unions opting to not go back to in-person instruction. Sluggish economic movement on the job front mixed with inflation continuing.

U.S. government making lists on "personal religious information" for people who apply for religious exemptions to vaccination Lithuania Defiant of China over Taiwan
EDUCATION/FAMILIES	MCL	24-Feb	6:00 a	2 hours	AM	Leonard Sax - author, The Collapse of Parenting The Broken Alliance of Teachers and Parents:

FAMILY / MARRIAGE	Com-Spot	08-Jan 09-Jan	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Lambers Fisher - stronger marriages in 2022 – Key priority is expectations – of same goals – it must be expressed to one another. Challenge of how to express expectations – Why don't you or Why can't you vs "WE". Over the past year this is generally more outside stresses that could affect family and marriages. Be reasonable to accept help from others.
FINANCIAL	AY	24-Jan	2:00 p	4 hours	FM	Can you believe it's already tax season? I just barely took down my tax season tree from last year. Dad jokes aside, the IRS is warning that tax returns could be delayed this year so their suggestion is to file as early as possible! And if you want to file your taxes for free, there are a few options. Note that just because you filed one place last year for free, it may not be free anymore. For example, TurboTax is not allowing people to file for free this year. You can always find an up-to-date list of free tax filing websites from the IRS.
FINANCIAL	AY	12-Jan	2:00 p	4 hours	FM	Maybe this is the year where you want to manage your money better – how would it feel to finish the year with an extra $1,378? It's easier than you think, and it starts with a simple step: save a dollar this week. Next week, save two. Then add another dollar to the savings every week throughout the year. It's called the 52-week Savings Challenge, and it's a great reminder of how big things can come from small beginnings!

SAFETY – TRAFFIC	Com-Spot	05-Feb 06-Feb	6:30a 6a 1p	10 min.	AM FM AM	Mike Hanson -MNDPS -traffic safety and deaths – Increased traffic deaths in Minnesota. Crash numbers dropped during pandemic – but there are more fatal crashes. Are newer cars actually safer? The most important safety item is the seat belts. Most people do wear them – but those that don't are the ones without seatbelts. Extreme speed overrides all the safety instruments in the cars. – Over 1/3 in fatal crashes are because of speed. Impaired driving is up it's still a big issue. Distracted driving is down – possibly because of "hands-free" driving. Human error leads to 94% of the crashes. – and can be prevented. Obey speed limit and know the road weather conditions.
